

Cranston Smoking Edict Scored

MISQUOTED ON HIS POSITION. EDUCATOR SAYS

$1,000,000 IS OFFERED ELKS TO AID BLIND

That statements such as the one reported from J. A. Cranston, superintendent of schools, on July 3, in which he differed vigorously with State Superintendent Vierling Kersey on the question of smoking by teachers, are uncalled for and pertain to a matter on which final jurisdiction rests with the board of education, was indicated as the belief of that body last night when the matter was discussed at a meeting of the board in its Church and Sycamore street offices.

Cranston stated at the session that he was misquoted regarding the smoking situation and declared that the statements as printed were not a true representation of what he had said.

The board last night suggested that the statements attributed to Cranston in the interview amounted to an "overstepping of the mark" and that the board felt that such statements of policy should come from it.

State Superintendent Kersey recently stated that, so far as he was concerned, teachers might smoke so long as they did so in the privacy of their homes. Cranston's asserted position was that such a practice would not be countenanced by him. He was said to have amplified his position in a subsequent statement, pointing out that, while there is no law permitting dismissal until a teacher's contract is fulfilled, refusal to renew a contract might contests were in progress as preparatory exercises for the grand parade tomorrow night. Splendid lighting effects have been arranged to accompany the spectacle there. A number of motion picture "storm machines" have been placed in readiness to create effect when the entire amphitheater is darkened immediately before the program begins.

As the noise of the "storm machines" abates, a rose garden of twenty arbors and a grove of 100 orange trees will be illuminated at either end of the field and a 1,000 piece band will strike up the national anthem.

As the last notes sound, a huge gong is to be struck eleven times, an Elk's head is to appear on a brilliantly illuminated clock indicating that hour and Conrad Nagel, of screen fame, is to offer the eleven o'clock toast of the order. After the preliminary has been followed by "Auld Lang Syne," the program and three-hour-long parade will begin.

follow in the case of a teacher who smoked. He stated that he believed there was no reason for a change in the present faculty here on this score.

ASSISTANT NAVY SECRETARY TO COME TO S. A. TOMORROW

The general dirigible committee of Orange county, members of which were conferring today with the Los Angeles group, were named as William C. Jerome, chairman; A. J. Cruikshank, J. Frank Burke, A. B. Rousseau, Clyde L. Jenken, Berle Morthland, Willard Smith, Charles H. Chapman, J. G. Mitchell, George Jeffrey, William Schumacher, W. H. DeWolfe, James Irvine Jr., F. L. Purinton, W. G. Knox, J. P. Oreeley, Sherman Stevens, Dr. C. G. Huston, S. H. Woodruff, Ole Hanson, W. J. Carmichael, V. D. Johnson, Carl Mock and James Archibald.

Santa Ana has been negotiating with the navy department for the last two years and has sent representatives to Washington in the interest of a county site for the dirigible base, located between this city and Costa Mesa.

Rear-Admiral Moffatt expects to make a personal inspection of the various locations offered by the Southland, although advance information would indicate that a region near Newport bay, in this county, may be selected if the site can be obtained on a financial basis which the United States might accept.

The dirigibles to be housed in the hangars of such a base will be approximately three times the size of the Los Angeles, now housed in Lakewood, N. J. It has been pointed out that such a base would be valuable to the naval air defense in connection with the west coast battle fleet.

CHEST NAMES ALL YEAR MAN FOR MANAGER

had preparation for and experience in this phase of community activities, Mr. Taylor stated.

Cause for special gratification was seen by the board as it adopted the new program in the fact that the cost for the entire year round service will not exceed that which has heretofore been involved in campaigns conducted by a specialist for a brief period. The campaign last fall for some $51,000 was conducted during an intensive drive lasting a week after some six weeks of preliminary work on the part of the specialist secured for that work. The total subscribed last year fell about 10 per cent short of the estimated amount required for the work of the various organizations that obtain their funds through the efforts of the Chest. These organizations include Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Salvation Army, Crippled Children's Relief association, Children's Home association, Veterans' Welfare and American Red Cross.

"The new arrangement, which is expected to be a permanent one, was unanimously approved by the Board," Mr. Taylor said, "and the board feels itself very fortunate to secure the service of these capable people, and which is possible only because of their love for and desire to again live in the city of Santa Ana, where they have a host of friends."

The new office is expected to be opened by Miller about July 15, and the family will re-establish their residence in the very near future.

"Because of the continuous and more protracted character of the work which will be done through the office," the new president stated, "a shorter campaign, probably of only three days duration, will be made along about November for the culmination of the annual effort."

DINNER DISAGREES

REEDLY, Calif., July 10.—(UP)—Because the dinner his mother cooked for him failed to agree with his standard of what a meal should be, Ben Brase, 19, struck his mother, she complained to Judge Albert E. Holderman. The youth will eat his next 90 meals in the county jail, and if he fails to behave himself thereafter, will get 450 more meals at county expense.

trolled the Mexican border for liquor and narcotic smugglers. Reinhardt is 29 years old. His chance to break into the flying game came in Dallas, Texas, it was said, when he persuaded his brother, A. J. Reinhardt, a licensed pilot, to teach him to fly. At the start of the endurance flight, however, Reinhardt lacked the 200 hours required for a transport pilot's license.

Reinhardt came to Los Angeles from Salem, Oregon and Mendell from Fort Worth, Texas.

The "Angeleno" in which the men took off at 7:30 a. m. on Tuesday, July 2 is a four passenger cabin biplane, driven by a 220 H. P. Wright whirlwind motor.

Mendell and Reinhardt are assisted by Paul Whittier, contact plane pilot, and Slade Hulbert, hose man, to whom they gave much credit in messages dropped to the ground.

Hulbert revealed last night that his body was black and blue from the many contacts he has made with the endurance plane. He modestly explained "there was nothing to his job," but others connected with the flight said he was forced to wrap the hose around his waist and shoulders and brace himself firmly in a small cockpit to assure a steady contact. The pull of the planes and air pressure exert a force, which requires great strength to overcome, air men said.

The "Angeleno" has required between 50 and 175 gallons of gas per refueling during the flight. It averaged 14 gallons per hour during the first three days. At that point the overhauled motor began to function normally and the consumption has averaged 13 gallons per hour since.

The last refueling was accomplished at 7:30 p. m., last night as a heavy fog began to roll in from the Pacific ocean. The fliers took aboard 100 gallons of gasoline, enough to last through the night.

The territory included within this boundary was announced by City Engineer Jensen as 285 acres.

The report of the ballot in the two districts was made to City Clerk Ed Vegely by the respective boards, consisting of W. F. McKinley, inspector, and Harvey E. Baer and Mrs. Effie J. Ward, judges, for the Delhi district, and J. B. Lowry, inspector, and Mrs. Helen Smith and Mrs. Eula Allen, judges, for the West Chapman district.

The area in the Chapman district included a strip along West Chapman avenue to a point some 300 feet south, where the north boundary of a strip recently annexed by the city of Orange begins, with the boundary line then running west to the Santa Ana river and along the river to a point connecting with the strip along the Southern Pacific tracks recently annexed to Santa Ana.

The victory for pro-annexationists in the Delhi district came after a hard campaign and a previous defeat at the polls some seven months ago. R. D. Floyd led the faction favoring annexation.

has not increased in proportion to the increased cost of sickness occasioned by other factors. Nor has the compensation of physicians and surgeons increased to anything like the increase that has occurred in anything else."

The resolution urged that the study of the question, however, be made by the profession and not left to laymen.

In short, the medical profession, for at least another year, will do nothing to reduce the high cost of sickness and it will be just as expensive for Johnny to have the measles or for dad to have his appendix buried ahead of the rest of him as it is now.

The association frowned on the practice of split fees. A resolution adopted urged that when a second or third doctor is called in on a case that each render the patient separate bills, and also that the doctor who calls in the other or others, shall receive no part of their fees.

for the out-of-town delegates who have made reservations at the camp grounds.

Camping accommodations include dormitory tents and 10 cottages, the latter are equipped with two double beds, table, kitchenette, hot plate, light and water. A cafeteria and lunch stand will be conducted on the camp grounds, which are fully equipped with a community kitchen for campers and modern, sanitary lavatory conveniences.

Delegates, who are not camping, may reach the grounds by the Los Angeles, San Diego and Riverside busses that pass the grounds, or by the Pacific Electric cars to Orange that stop at the entrance of the grounds.

The opening meeting tomorrow night will be held in the large tabernacle tent. It is called "A Full Salvation Camp" and there will be three preaching services daily: 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Love feast, Bible study, Children's service and young people's meeting will also be held.

The Rev. Mr. Harding today introduced the workers who will attend the camp meeting here. They included the Rev. W. G. Schurman, pastor evangelist of the First Church of the Nazarene, Chicago, which has one of the largest congregations in the denomination; Dr. J. B. Chapman, former college president and editor of the Herald of Holiness, who is now one of the general superintendents of the church; the Rev. Orval J. Nease, former pastor of the First church, Columbus, O., who is now president of Pasadena college; the Rev. D. I. Vanderpool, for many years superintendent of the Colorado district, pastor of the First church of Denver, and who is now pastor of Breese Avenue church, Pasadena; Harry Wenger, evangelistic

HULL AND FORD FIGHT MOVE TO END SERVICES

Possibility of a court action between the Santa Ana board of education and Dr. M. S. Hull and Dr. O. S. Ford, of the University of Southern California, loomed today as a result of an encounter between the two parties at the board meeting last night.

Dr. Hull, in presenting his side of the case before the board, stated that the district attorney of Los Angeles had declared their contract with the board valid and that he and Dr. Ford could not, without loss to themselves, withdraw from their connection with the board at the present time.

The board of education contends that the services of Hull and Ford, who were employed to make a survey of the school situation here and to aid in the school bonds election, were determined with the failure of the first school bond issue. The Santa Ana district attorney backs up the board's statement, it was said.

Refuse Commission Split

In accordance with Hull's and Ford's contract with the board, they were to receive a portion of their commission for services rendered from the six per cent commission given the architect. The architectural work has been given to Allison and Allison, of Pasadena, who refuse to divide their commission with Hull and Ford.

Both parties were in a deadlock after an hour of argument last night. The board has refused to further consider the services of the pair, while Hull and Ford declare they still are under contract to the board.

A further snag was struck by the board when it was discovered, through a report delivered by a member of the Allison & Allison firm, that a city ordinance prohibits the building of a two-story frame building without the use of concrete in the structure. Former plans had been to construct a two-story wooden structure with an auditorium on the Artesia school site and $75,000 had been set aside for that purpose.

As a result of the ordinance, which further prohibits the building of an auditorium seating over 250 without the use of concrete in the structure, it was decided that two classrooms would have to be dropped from the construction plan in order to bring the project within the appropriation. Alteration bids on the newly adopted plan will be called for.

A motion was made by Dr. Roy Horton that Allison & Allison be allowed to continue their preliminary work in regard to the construction work prior to the sale of the bonds. The motion carried.

Want Wilson Honored

A verbal petition was delivered asking that one of the new schools be named after the late Woodrow Wilson. The board accepted the petition and will act upon it at a later meeting.

A renewal of the much discussed question of supporting Santa Ana merchants in buying construction material for the various school projects was brought up by Herbert Miller and immediately was attacked by Dr. Horton. Miller contended that the spending of the people's money should be in Santa Ana, while Horton declared that the people should be protected by making the money go as far as possible and that if money could be saved by purchasing materials out of the city, it should be done.

The board secretary was instructed to confine her applications for bids to Santa Ana merchants, hereafter, although the board passed a motion to purchase a quantity of lumber from the Pacific National Lumber company, of Los Angeles.

A petition for the use of the high school auditorium from a lecture by the Rev. Bob Shuler was denied by the board.

Bids for work on the high school print shop addition and a new electrical system to be installed in the high school were opened.

FULLERTON JUNIOR LEAGION TEAM BUSY

FULLERTON, July 10.—Fullerton junior American Legion baseball players were scheduled to meet Riverside today in one of their decisive play-offs of the district. If the locals win, they will be tied with San Bernardino for first place with the deciding game on the local field Saturday.

Fullerton was defeated in 11 innings by Riverside in the first game, 12 to 11.

Ed Thompson, star hurler for the locals, was scheduled to start the game today and with the team in fairly good shape, they should win. The players are set for the state finals and it will take a mighty good team to overthrow them.

LIGHTHOUSE FOR SALE

LONDON, July 10.—(UP)—England's oldest lighthouse is for sale. It is situated on the Mersey embankment at Leasowe and has a good command of the sea. The lights of the beacon were extinguished in 1908. Now the property is being listed by real estate agents who describe it as an ideal spot for a catering business or even for a private residence.

Local Briefs

Twenty abalones were caught yesterday by a party of Santa Ana men, who started the hunt at 4 a. m., yesterday, on a nearby beach. The successful hunters were Harry G. Wetherell and son, Lewis, W. R. Freeman, John T. Schwellzer.

A discussion of the life of St. Paul is the feature theme of the mid-week meetings at the First Methodist church, which are under the leadership of Dr. George A. Warner. The service tonight is to have the Rev. James H. Hughes, assistant pastor, and minister of education, in charge of the music. It will be his last appearance in such capacity before taking his year's leave of absence, during which he plans to study in Boston.

Notice of the regional biennial conference of Boy Scout council presidents, executive and field executives has been received by George G. Walker, Orange county Scout executive. Pennsylvanians now residing in Southern California have been called to a state reunion and picnic to be held Saturday, July 13, in Bixby park, Long Beach. An afternoon program of song and oratory will be conducted by the president, J. A. Loeslein. Those who do not wish to take picnic baskets will find lunches obtainable in the park.

Smiley To Attend Farm Meeting As State's Delegate

That J. A. Smiley, of Santa Ana, prominent Orange County Farm bureau leader, will represent the State Farm Bureau federation at the western states farm bureau convention, to be held July 22 to July 27, was announced today by Norman M. Blaney, executive secretary of the Orange County Farm bureau.

A. Ahlf, president of the California federation, will be unable to attend the convocation because of illness in his family and has requested Smiley to represent him. Blaney stated, Blaney will leave with Smiley next Wednesday to represent the board of directors of the Orange County Farm bureau at the sessions.

The convention will start on July 22, in Bozeman, Mont. On July 24 and 25 it will convene in Yellowstone Park and on July 26 and 27 in Cody, Wyo.

Directors in the concern include W. W. Ross, Santa Ana automobile dealer; John E. Wagner, Placentia; A. D. Moddie, Fullerton; Leo Gilbert, M. Marks, Earl Akers and G. A. Rosa, Long Beach.

PRESS CLUB IS GUEST AT FAIR BOARD DINNER

Members of the Orange County Press club were guests, last night, of the county fair board at a chicken dinner served in the dining hall at the fair grounds. Approximately 150 newspapermen, representing nearly every paper in the county, and county and fair officials attended the meeting at which plans for the 1929 exposition were discussed.

Lotus Loudon, president of the Press club, presided over the brief business session, which was occupied chiefly with introduction of the guests.

Scribes of the county had been warned in their invitations to the meeting to gird on their armor if they were thin-skinned and the reason for the warning became apparent when the curtain was raised on a playlet depicting a scene in the city room of the average daily newspaper. Humorous "digs" were taken at nearly every scribe associated with the club and at a number of county officials in the course of the staff's efforts to grind out the daily grist of news.

Finally the "Bumblebees," for that was the name of the paper, reached the press and it was not long before those in the audience were reading about themselves, as copies of the paper had been prepared beforehand and were now distributed.

Members of the cast of the playlet included McBride, of La Habra; Perry Maynard, Fullerton; Franklin Howatt, Lotus Loudon and Floyd McCracken, Anaheim, and Eddie Granville, Santa Ana.

The newspapermen accepted the invitation of Sheriff Sam Jernigan, who was present, to hold their next meeting in his "hotel," in Santa Ana, but today many were rumored worrying over the sheriff's promise to give them the best the chef allows on week days.

Formation of a concern to be known as the Golden State Acceptance corporation, with an authorized capital stock of $150,000, and with headquarters in Santa Ana, was revealed today with the filing of articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office here.

MODEL KITCHEN IS NEAR COMPLETION

Representatives of women's organization from all sections of Orange county today attended a "pre-view" of the model kitchen which is nearing completion in the district offices of the Southern Counties Gas company, at 207 West Second street.

Preceding the visit to the kitchen, those in attendance were guests of C. E. Rutledge, district manager for the company, at a luncheon served in the gas company's auditorium on the second floor of the same building. At the conclusion of the luncheon, Rutledge briefly outlined the idea behind the building of the model kitchen.

"We are planning to formally open the model kitchen to the public at 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon and at that time it will be dedicated to the service of the women of Orange county. Following the opening, which will continue during the entire afternoon next Wednesday, the kitchen will be open during each business day with a hostess in charge who will serve light refreshments to all who call—and everybody will be welcome."

Members of the cast of the playlet included McBride, of La Habra; Perry Maynard, Fullerton; Franklin Howatt, Lotus Loudon and Floyd McCracken, Anaheim, and Eddie Granville, Santa Ana.

The newspapermen accepted the invitation of Sheriff Sam Jernigan, who was present, to hold their next meeting in his "hotel," in Santa Ana, but today many were rumored worrying over the sheriff's promise to give them the best the chef allows on week days.

Condemnation Of Land For Street Purposes Asked

The city of Orange today filed suit for condemnation of property in that community to provide for the opening and extension of Almond street. The complaint named a large number of property owners.

Intention of the council to open Almond avenue from the west line of Batavia street to the east line of Main street to a uniform width of 66 feet was declared on March 12.

The complaint asks the court to determine the amount of damages to each property owner and to condemn the necessary land for public use.

SPECIAL VENIRE IS CALLED FOR TRIAL

A special venire of 20 prospective jurors was called today by Superior Judge James L. Allen after the regular panel had been exhausted in an attempt to secure a jury for the trial of James Garrett, Huntington Beach, charged with selling liquor.

The special venire was to report at 1:30 p. m., at which time Deputy District Attorney Sam L. Col-ins and S. B. Kaufman, with D. G. Wetlin, defense attorney, were to resume their examination of jury candidates.

At a former trial on the same charge a jury disagreed and the case was reset for trial today. Garrett has been convicted on another separate charge of selling booze. He has appealed the case and it now is in the district court of appeals.

SMART. FINAL OFFER REWARD FOR ROBBERS

A reward of $500 today was offered by the Smart and Final Grocery company here for the arrest and conviction of the thieves who, on the night of June 2, stole cigars valued at $3000 from the company's warehouse at 1264 East Fourth street.

The police department, through Chief L. C. Rogers and Assistant Chief Sid Smithwick, stated today that every effort was being made to arrest the thieves and that several clues were being followed up.

Police are of the opinion that the cigars went from here to San Diego, following the robbery, inasmuch as it was learned that approximately $3000 worth of cigars of the same brands had been disposed of there through a fence.

Two men, in the county jail in San Diego on charges of cigar robbery, have been questioned by officers from here, but they have not been connected with the crime here, Smithwick stated.

Similar robberies have been reported from Los Angeles and San Diego and officers here are convinced that the same gang of thieves has robbed warehouses in all three cities.

Police News

Four persons were given fines of $2 each in police court yesterday on charges of overtime parking. They were B. G. Hickman, Edward Trecker, L. H. Mosher and Frank Higley. On a charge of parking his automobile between the hours of 2 and 5 a. m. on a city street, E. B. Moody was fined $2.

P. W. Roberts, 45, dishwasher, was fined $15 in police court yesterday on a charge of being drunk.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED

Alleging that her husband, Glenn H. Rogers, has failed to provide for his family, Jennie E. Rogers today filed suit for divorce. They were married in 1918 and separated in 1927, the complaint said.

TAKING ON GAS A MILE UP

GOODWILL BODY DOUBLES WORK IN NEW STORE

John Winterbourne, manager of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California, Orange county branch, in Santa Ana, said yesterday at an executive meeting of the industries, that the institution here, since its organization, has more than doubled its business since moving from its old location at 1027 East Fourth street to its new home, situated at 415 West Fourth street.

"The co-operation of the people of Santa Ana has been splendid," Winterbourne declared. "Our collections have been remarkably good, but I want to urge citizens to fuller co-operation because the more often our bags are filled, the more articles we sell in the store, and our ability to assist the needy by employment is limited to the receipts of the store."

Santa Ana social welfare workers are manifesting much interest in the Goodwill institution here which now is regularly employing nine to 12 dependent persons, according to the report given yesterday by the manager.

Sam Vogt reported for the store committee, which consists of Dr. George A. Warner and M. B. Youel. He reported the business in good condition and commended the management in behalf of the committee for its progressive activity.

W. A. Gregg, county aid commissioner, of the welfare committee of the Goodwill institution, reported the industry as co-operating with him and rendering worth while assistance to men and women in need of employment.

The Rev. O. W. Reinus, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, in which was noted the impressive dedicatory service which was held at the new location of the Goodwill store on June 15.

WOMAN IS INJURED WHEN HIT BY AUTO

Mrs. E. J. Alder, of 409 Minter street, was slightly injured at 5:30 last night, when she was run down by an automobile on East Fourth street, between Spurgeon and French streets, according to a report filed at the city police station by Harold E. Parker, of 1011 West Pine street, driver of the machine.

Parker reported that he was backing out from the curb at the time of the accident and did not see the woman. She was not seriously hurt, being taken to her home after the accident.

CALL MEET TO PERFECT PLANS FOR INSPECTION

FULLERTON, July 10.—A meeting to help organize the forces of the Mutual Orange Distributors of Southern California in a survey of citrus groves has been called by J. A. Stewart, sales manager of the organization, for tomorrow night, in McFarland's cafe, here, where Harold Ryan, horticultural commissioner of Los Angeles county, will be the principal speaker.

It is expected that about 40 managers and foremen of packing plants connected with the M. O. D. will be present. The event is for the purpose of organizing the educational campaign in connection with the inspection work now being done by the state department of agriculture in regard to the Mediterranean fruit fly.

Other speakers will be A. L. Chandler and H. M. Thomason, of the supply department, and W. H. Blodgett, field manager of the M. O. D.

CHURCH DINNER CLOSES SEASON OF CHORISTERS

Marking the close of its fourth year of successful work, the Y. M. C. A. Choristers dined and sang together for the last time this season at an enjoyable get-together in St. Peter's Lutheran church last night.

The singers, with their wives and families, together with a number of the church members were fed by a committee of women of the church, following which they presented a program of favorite selections, interspersed with sol numbers. The soloists were Mrs. C. N. Grace and Robert Billaud, in vocal numbers, and Miss Betty Smedley, violinist.

In a brief business session, officers were elected for next year, as follows:

President, F. A. Daley; vice president, Will Obarri; secretary-treasurer, H. R. Greenwald; program committee, Reg Hartley, Lyle Forman and Donald Woolley; membership committee, Robert Billaud, C. N. Grace and Reg Hartley.

These officers succeed the former executive committee, which included James Bramley, Cleve Sedoris and Lyle Forman.

C. N. Grace, in behalf of the club, made a clever presentation speech, giving to R. C. Smedley the director, a gift of a leather brief case.

The club numbers at present 23 members and it is hoped that with the beginning of work in the fall the organization will be considerably enlarged.

GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, July 10.—The Misses Anna Reid and Anna Lampman entertained with a kitchen shower in compliment to Miss Fern Wilson at the former's home on recently.

The game of "Cootie" was played during the evening and Miss Ruth Bowman was awarded first prize.

Colors in keeping with the Fourth of July were used throughout the home. A wagon, decorated with red, white and blue paper, was drawn in by little Miss Margaret Reed, sister of the hostess "Kitchen Special" was written on one side. The honoree received a number of lovely and useful gifts for her new home.

Refreshments were served to the following: Miss Fern Wilson, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Eleanor Schell, Miss Eunice Bragg, Miss Myra Bragg, Miss Ruth Bowman, Miss Anna Lampman, Miss Margaret Reed and Miss Anna Reid.

Mrs. B. Northcross entertained at dinner on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roepke, of Bishop, who have been spending several days here. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Roepke; Edwin Ronk, of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt Ford and son, Gene, Miss Isabel Northcross and Mrs. B. Northcross.

S. A. COMPANY TO LEAVE FOR CAMP JULY 20

Fifty-six members of Santa Ana's company F, the 185th Infantry, California National Guard, will entrain with full field equipment for a two-week training period at Camp San Luis Obispo, Saturday, July 20. Three officers will accompany the group.

The training program the Santa Ana men will participate in will include close order drill, extended order drill, rifle range practice and protective warfare. The men will have the afternoons free for athletics or rest.

According to an official estimate, the 40th division, of which the Santa Ana company is a unit, will consume 3000 pounds of butter, 3750 dozen fresh eggs, 35,000 pounds potatoes, 4000 pounds of bacon, 25,000 pounds fresh beef, 28,000 pounds of flour and 13,000 pounds of sugar during the field training program.

Enlistments in the Santa Ana company will be held open until 9 p.m., July 15, for any men wishing to enlist in time to attend the camp. Men enlisting before that date will, while in camp, receive the same equipment, rations and pay as a federal soldier of their rating.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENT

If a flower holder is placed in the center of a bowl to hold the first few blooms in a house bouquet, the remainder can be placed loosely and easily and a delightful informality in arrangement can be achieved.

NO SUPPLIES HERE FOR LICENSE TESTS

An additional supply of application blanks for persons who must procure new automobile drivers' licenses before October 1 will not be received here before the first of next week, in the opinion of Capt. Henry Meehan, of the state traffic department, who said that the supply was completely exhausted at this time. Crowds continue to file into the traffic department offices in spite of the fact that publicity to the effect that there are no supplies available has been freely given, Captain Meehan said.

HUNT MOTORISTS FOLLOWING CRASH

Santa Ana police and deputy officers today were searching for an automobile, believed to have been occupied by two men and two women, which last night crashed into another car at Newport Beach and then was driven away, the driver failing to stop and render aid.

Reports of the accident were received here from Newport Beach police, who asked that the occupants of the machine be held. No one was reported injured in the crash.

NEAT SLICING

When serving cold baked ham, chicken or any other chilled cuts, appearance is tremendously important. Slice very neatly, arrange with extreme care and garnish prettily.

SUGAR PLANT WILL PUT 250 MEN TO WORK

Plans for the employment of 250 men were revealed here today with the announcement that the Holly Sugar corporation will open its season August 8. Actual harvesting will start August 5, according to an announcement made today by G. J. Daley, general superintendent of the plant.

Advance indications point to a good year, according to Daley, and the plant expects to harvest 70,000 tons of beets during the season.

"The sugar in the beets is up to the standard of former years," Daley said, "and both irrigated and non-irrigated lands look exceptionally good."

The plant will use 250 employees during the bulk of the season and 75 men for a short period after the season for repair work in preparation for next year.

In commenting upon the outlook for next year, Daley announced that the 1930 crop will depend upon a wet season.

PEPPERS VALUED AT OVER $200 STOLEN

Several sacks of chili peppers, valued at $210, were stolen last night by burglars who broke into the Warner warehouse, in Stanton, according to a report filed at the sheriff's office.

Only the best of the chili peppers stored in the house were taken, the thieves carefully avoiding a number of other sacks containing peppers of an inferior grade.

Deputy Sheriff Harry Carter was assigned to the case and is endeavoring to connect the crime with several similar ones reported from the Wintersburg district during the last several weeks.

442 of the 451 important Hollywood actresses use Lux Toilet Soap

PHYLLIS HAVER, Pathé star, in the striking tiled bathroom built in Hollywood especially for her blonde loveliness. "No star can look lovely unless she has a really velvety skin. Lux Toilet Soap leaves my skin so gently smooth that I have no fear of the high-powered close-up lights."

Phyllis Haver

The next time you see DOROTHY SEBASTIAN, beautiful Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, in a close-up, notice how petal-smooth Lux Toilet Soap keeps her skin. She says enthusiastically: "Lux Toilet Soap gives my skin such a lovely soft bloom that I never have to worry about whether it is exquisite enough to be 'studio skin.'"

"Charm depends on lovely skin," say 39 leading Hollywood directors

ANY girl's greatest charm is lovely smooth skin. As Howard Higgins, Pathé director, expresses it, summing up the experience of leading Hollywood directors: "A girl's greatest loveliness is a beautiful skin—it is more important in a girl than wonderful eyes or a beautiful mouth."

He goes on to say: "I don't remember a girl ever reaching screen stardom without a rarely lovely skin—for make-up is no help under the all-revealing lights of the close-up. Smooth skin is absolutely necessary for popularity and loveliness."

Because this is true, nine out of ten screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap, and all the great studios have made it the official soap in their dressing rooms. In Hollywood they have found that this delightful soap—made by the famous French method—keeps the skin exquisitely lovely.

If you aren't already devoted to this daintily fragrant, white soap, do try it—this very day. Such abundant lather! And it keeps your skin as smooth as satin.

LOIS WILSON, Warner Brothers' popular star, says: "The satin-smooth skin that a close-up reveals must be as lovely as it looks—it is something that even the cleverest make-up cannot fake. I'm delighted with Lux Toilet Soap. It's a lovely soap!"

RIDING CLUB OFF ON ANNUAL JAUNT

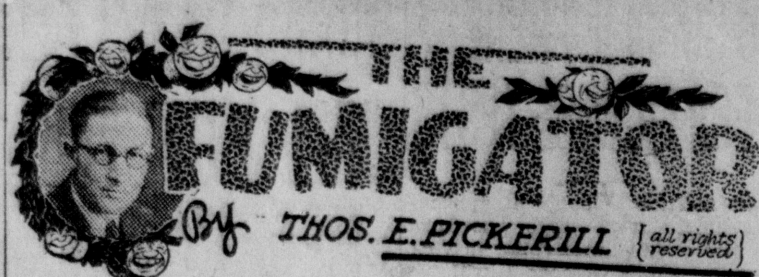

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—Fifteen San Clemente horsemen left early this morning on the start of a riding trip that will take at least 12 days. On the party were Ole Hanson Jr., Ted Hanson, Trafford Hutson, Scotty W. W. Watson, Art Strang, Fritz Hallberg, Fred Morgan, J. M. Bartow, Ralph Swigart, Lloyd, Bunny and Bill Hanson, sons of Ole Hanson sr., Emery and Bob Hanson, sons of Ole Hanson Jr., and Scotty W. Watson Jr., son of Scotty Watson. The first day's trip will take the party to San Juan Capistrano Hot springs. Then will come jaunts to Lake Elsinore, Hemet, Idylwood, Big Bear Lake, Lake Arrowhead and then back home. On the trip will be a cook and two camp men who will accompany a truck on which will be the food for the party.

BREA

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Casner and little daughter of South Madrona avenue, left Monday morning for a vacation trip which will take them into Canada before they return home. They expect to be away about two months.

Mrs. H. E. Williams and children of South Pomona avenue together with Miss Maxine Massey, Miss Dorris Forbes and Norval Winchel, motored to Long Beach Sunday where they spent the day. Miss Helen Hemigan of South Madrona avenue, and her aunt, Mrs. Grace V. Wallace and children from Arizona, who are visiting here, motored to Sierra Madre Sunday where they spent the day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Van Antwerp. Mr. and Mrs. Van Antwerp are parents of Mrs. Wallace and the grandparents of Miss Hemigan.

Ted McGee, proprietor of the cigar stand on Pomona avenue, is able to be out again after a serious illness of several weeks duration.

THOS. E. PICKERILL

You never hear people complain that they can't see the billboards on account of the scenery.

All you have to do nowadays to become a successful magazine writer is to crawl in as a stow-away on a trans-oceanic flight, stay on top of a flagpole longer than anybody else, or get yourself elected President of the United States. If you're not a successful magazine writer then you never will be, and ought to go back to jerking soda where you started.

NEWPORT: "Do you consider your marriage a success?"
BAILBOA: "So successful, indeed, that if I were to be king for a day I'd want the queen along, too."

THE FUMIGATOR'S PLAN

Now that the engineers have had their say, including all those who thought they were engineers, it's time for the common people to have their say in regard to this flood control and water conservation business. We hate to contradict ourselves, but after pushing that peanut up old Saddleback and there looking down upon this peaceful plain we came to the conclusion that the only thing to do is let Orange county go back to a desert and not build any dams at all. The advantages of a desert over vegetated areas of watered land are great and many.

In the first place there would be more places to park if we had a desert, which is quite an item to think about.

The desert would be all to the advertising advantages of Orange county, and give local color to the Laguna Beach artists. Look at the gas they'd save which now goes to Riverside county!

There would be any billboards because there wouldn't be any special scenery to hide, which would render billboards valueless even if there were anybody to read them in a desert.

Just think how fine it would be to ride along the highways and pick luscious dates from those palms that can't mature now! And these ornamental banana trees that Hoosiers and others plant in front of their windows so as to really feel they at last got to live in California, would grow bananas big enough to attract the tarantulas; and as we saw in The Register a week or ago an article by a scientist who said a tarantula wouldn't hurt you after the first few minutes of deathly sickness, this in itself is an advantage for we could all start tarantula farms and advertise big.

And as for taxes, there wouldn't be much to pay because deserts require very little upkeep, and the outgo from them is entirely satisfactory, especially this time of the year. Then whenever there are little taxes there is correspondingly little graft, so crime would be reduced to gold diggers, bootleggers and wine-merchants, and as we all know who they are the expenses for officers and detection would be small enough to be an argument for going back to desert.

One of the greatest advantages would be the prosperity which would reflect itself in service station proprietors who braved the burning sands and stayed. They would reap a great harvest because the hotter you get in body and mind the price of gas goes up accordingly.

The glass factory would have more sand to make glass out of, and we can think of a lot more reasons why Orange county should go back to desert land, any one of which should be sufficient reason to induce any intelligent voter not to vote for those dam bonds.

There's only one thing we can think of against the proposition. We'd have to change the name of Orange county, because if it were a desert there would be NO ORANGES sure enough!

A GOOD COMMUNITY IS BUT THE LENGTHENED SHADOW OF ITS LOYAL BOOSTERS.

An honest profession is good for other souls.

Since the world began men have stood for many things, but in this modern age there are getting all too few who will stand for a lady.

NEW BOOKS IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

A little over 100 years ago, Emma Willard, then a young school mistress in Middlebury, Vermont, realized the injustice and short-sightedness of the unequal educational opportunities offered girls and boys. In "Emma Willard," by Alma Lutz, we have the story of her life which was devoted to freeing women from the ignorance to which they had been bound by custom and narrow scriptural interpretation.

When she presented her "Plan for Improving Female Education" to the New York legislature and to the public in 1819, she became a national figure. Her experiment, the Troy Female Seminary, founded in 1821, exerted an ever-widening influence on the development of our country. Because of the change wrought in public opinion by her daring and persistent stand for the higher education of women, seminaries and high schools for girls and, later, women's colleges and co-educational universities became a permanent part of our national life.

School Continues
Although, during her lifetime, Emma Willard was unable to devise any means by which her Troy Female Seminary might endure as a permanent institution, it has continued to the present day and is now known as the Emma Willard School in Troy, New York.

Her work, which she continued so steadfastly throughout her life, unfolded beyond her fondest hopes and is still being carried forward today. Not only women, but men and the whole nation have reaped the benefits of the intelligent, useful womanhood developed under her plan of education.

"Memoirs of Major General Frank D. Baldwin," by his wife, Alice Blackwood Baldwin, portrays one of the most remarkable characters in the old army. He was a born soldier and possessed all the qualities of heart, mind and character which go to complete such a personality.

General Baldwin was born at Manchester, Michigan, on June 26, 1842. When 19 years of age he joined the Union army, serving as Second Lieutenant Michigan Home Guards in 1861. He was mustered out of service June 10, 1865, with rank of Lieutenant Colonel at the age of 22.

He entered the regular army as second lieutenant after the Civil war and won many medals. For his victory at Blyan, Mindanao, June 9, 1902, he was promoted to the rank of brigadier general. In 1915 by a special act of congress, he was made major general.

Given High Post
Under Governor Gunter, he was made adjutant general of Colorado in 1917. All of the military affairs of the state were left to him.

Realizing the imminence of war, with his experience he entered upon the organization of the citizens and preparation of the soldiery for such contingency. When

BEAUTY COMES FROM HEALTH

Fashions Now Emphasize the Natural Healthy Figure

A great change has come over the world of fashion. The slim and angular figure is growing less popular.

Perhaps this is partly due to the warnings of medical specialists that thousands of women and girls were ruining their health by extreme reducing diets. Part of it may be due to a more sensible trend in style. All the world knows today that beauty comes from health.

The health of the public is in the hands of the women. If man were left to his own devices he might eat few foods, and those improperly cooked. Monotony in diet and eventually bodily disorders would result. Sugar is a great ally of women in preparing a varied, balanced diet that is not only healthful, but delightful to the taste and welcomed by every member of the family.

Learn the value of a dash of sugar in making cereals delicious. Use a sprinkling of sugar to encourage the ingestion of grapefruit and other healthful, fresh fruits. A little sugar makes stewed fruits delightful to the palate. And now four women cooking experts have rediscovered the old secret of using a dash of sugar in vegetables while they are cooking with a small amount of water. You will hardly recognize vegetables cooked in this proper way. They are fresher, more colorful, and the vegetable flavors are developed to a new point of perfection. Remember also ice cream, cakes, cookies and candy for dessert. A bit of sweet makes the meal complete. The Sugar Institute.

came, the first call for troops from any state was made in Colorado. With such care and skill had they been prepared that only a small percentage was rejected when tendered to the federal service.

The service of this man to the building of the nation was great both in the rather unformed period of his younger years and in the complex times of the World war. "Winning the King's Cup," by Helen G. Bell, is a book for all those who love adventure, as well as for those who go down to the sea in ships. Five great schooners pined on all canvas and dashed across the Atlantic in a race for the cup offered by the king of Spain. This account describes how the famous yacht, Elena, won in the first transatlantic race since 1905.

The dash from New York to Spain in 16 days could not fail to be exciting. The contest was a grueling one with five such worthy contestants. The ocean itself seemed bent to put forward further obstacles of winds and calms at the wrong time. The race was a thrilling one and a rather close one, but the Elena won gloriously.

Spain received the winners with great enthusiasm. Many banquets and receptions were given in honor of the event. The king and queen gave a brilliant ball at the royal palace at Santander, the summer palace of Spain.

Interesting To All
The book also tells the story of how the Elena was equipped for the race. The two chapters on "Getting Ready" and "Provisions" will be fascinating to yachtsmen and landlubbers as well. Nor will anyone fail to enjoy the account of the troubles with the crew, and all the other details we wish to know about such a trip.

An event like this helps to foster goodwill between nations and is worthy from this standpoint as well as because of its picturesque qualities.

SCOUTS TAKE PART IN CAMP SERVICES

The Sunday morning service of the Boy Scouts at Camp Ro-Ki-Li was participated in by 15 of the boys, each of whom made a worthwhile contribution to the service, according to the report of Scout Executive George Walker, who directed the service. Some eight visitors from Santa Ana and Tustin, and about 20 from the cabins surrounding the camp attended.

A talk on the Scout oath was given by Bill Spurgeon, Karl Kennedy, Jack Fegues, Gordon Almas and Frank Bailey talked on the meaning of the Scout's daily good turn. "How Camping Improves a Scout" was the subject presented by Richard Gilliland, William Moffatt and Vernon Jackson. Gordon Bessel and Don Newton addressed the group on "How Going to Church Makes a Better Scout."

Music was furnished by Carol Marty, Estli Coppack, Carl Bower and Jack McFarland, who sang the "Cowboy's Prayer." Coppack also accompanied the others with a harmonica.

LEGION POSTPONES TONIGHT'S SESSION

Postponing the scheduled American Legion meeting tonight in deference to the Elks convention in Los Angeles, the Santa Ana post will hold a dinner meeting Tuesday, July 16, it was learned today.

At that time members of Company F, Infantry 185, National Guard, will be guests. Other guests of honor will be General Storey, of San Diego; Lt. Col. Le Roy Smith, of Los Angeles; Col. Dwight Greene, of Los Angeles; Major Jackson, of Pasadena, and Major Harvey, of Los Angeles, formerly of Santa Ana.

Music and vaudeville for the meeting will be furnished by Jack Gledhill and his orchestra, while the American Legion Women's auxiliary will furnish the dinner. A special feature of the meeting will be the giving away of an automobile. Nominations also will open for the annual election of officers, the election to be held on September 12.

FORESTRY BODY PLEASED WITH SITUATION HERE

Assurance that the entire membership of the state forestry board would visit Orange county in the near future was made today by D. Eymann Huff, member of the state board. Present plans indicate that the board will be here either in September or October.

According to a statement made today by Huff, the forestry officials who visited the county waterheds here Monday were pleased with conditions in Orange county and complimented the county on the efficient work it has had done.

The state board will study conditions throughout Southern California as well as in Orange county, it was announced today.

The state board will meet in San Francisco next Friday, according to Huff, and at that time plans for the next Orange county and Southern California visit will be made.

NEW CURRENCY BEING ISSUED IN S. A. TODAY

Maintaining a well-deserved reputation for cordial greeting to newcomers, Santa Ana today expressed a warm welcome to a new family just arrived from Washington, D. C., and was endeavoring as a city, to make the strangers feel completely at home and so satisfied with their surroundings that they will never want to wander far from this locality. The newcomers were Mr. and Mrs. Twenty Dollar Bill, with their handsome young children, Ten, Five and One Dollar Bill, and already they have found temporary lodgings in the city's down-town business district, with the First National, Commercial National, Farmers' and Merchants' Savings and Los Angeles First National banks, and the Bank of Italy.

The newcomers arrived this morning about 10:30 o'clock, having been directed to this city by the Federal Reserve bank of Los Angeles. While no formal reception was held in their honor, there are many citizens awaiting their arrival with open arms and the teller's window at the various banks where they found lodgings, were popular. Members of the family were presented to these interested onlookers. In turn, upon written request of certain formal design, but it is the endeavor of each bank to aid the "Bills" in husbanding their strength, and not wear themselves out at once by immediately leaping into the city's social and financial life.

At the First National bank, F. H. Cloyes was in charge of the new currency, while C. A. Brown, chief teller at the Commercial National, was supervising the limited output at that institution. At the remaining banks, the currency was given out upon request, at the various cashier windows.

GETS 150-DAY TERM ON DRIVING CHARGE

Agastin Berumen, 25, residing at Logan and Stafford streets, Santa Ana, was sentenced today to spend 150 days in the county jail after he was convicted on a reckless driving charge in the Orange justice court.

Berumen is asserted to have driven a touring car into a light truck at the intersection of Fairhaven and Lincoln streets, Orange, injuring four Santa Ana men, who also were reported to reside on Logan street. Those on the truck were J. Gonzales, G. C. Rodriguez, J. Martinez and J. Mendez.

Officer Willard Winslow arrested Berumen at 7 a. m. today. He was taken before Judge G. W. Ingie, who imposed the 150-day sentence after Berumen was unable to pay a $150 fine.

Hotel Projects To Be Announced Soon, Is Belief

In an address before the Newport Beach Exchange club today, Walter L. Marlow called attention to the rapid development of Orange county's south coast and declared that millions of dollars would be spent there in the near future on several hotel projects, negotiations for which are under way. Marlow referred to projects at several south coast cities, including Dana Point, where it is expected that announcement soon will be made regarding construction of two huge hostels. One of these, the Dana Point inn, will cost approximately $600,000. The other hotel, to be a larger affair, is expected to be announced in the near future, negotiations now being under way.

MOTORIST HURT AS AUTO IS WRECKED

Frank O'Campo, 901 East First street, was slightly injured at 8:30 last night, when the car he was driving was struck from the rear by another machine and wrecked in a ditch near the intersection of Main street and Newport road, according to a report filed today at the sheriff's office.

According to O'Campo, the driver of the other machine did not stop to render aid after the accident, but disappeared on Newport road.

No one was reported injured when automobiles driven by John Marigold, Santa Ana, route No. 1, and Henry Robles, 1115 East Second street, Santa Ana, collided on North Main street, just outside of the city limits, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

SARGON PROVED A BLESSING TO HER. SHE SAYS

"The Way It Increased My Health, Weight and Strength Is Just Marvelous"

"I was so weak and rundown for months I was unable to do my housework. Then I started Sargon and in a week's time I gained five pounds and felt better than I had in a long time.

MRS. ROY WOOD

"For almost a year I suffered with a gradual giving-away of my strength and vitality. My limbs were so weak I could hardly get up and down stairs. My food would sour and ferment. I was continually bothered with gases and heart palpitation, and was so nervous I hardly ever slept more than two or three hours a night. My circulation was so poor that the ends of my fingers would turn blue, my toes were numb, and I was nearly always chilly, even in warm weather. I had neuritis in my shoulders and back, lost twenty pounds in weight, and treatment after treatment did me no good. Then I started Sargon and it was marvelous.

"I have a splendid appetite now and never have the slightest trace of stomach trouble. My nervousness is completely gone. I enjoy wonderful, refreshing sleep, and it is remarkable the way Sargon brought back my strength. Why, I do all my housework now with ease, and I can feel myself tingle with new circulation. The numbness has left my toes, and my fingers are natural again. Every ache and pain of neuritis is gone!

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills are mild but certain and keep my stomach clean and my system free from poisons. I never would have believed that any medicine could do so much for me in such a short time, as the Sargon treatment has done."

The above remarkable statement was recently made by Mrs. Roy Wood, of 3325 72nd Ave., Oakland, Cal.

Orange Group Supports Edict Against Smoking

OFFICER FOR WELFARE WORK MAY BE ASKED

ANAHEIM, July 10.—The maintenance of a contact officer for welfare work in Orange county was the subject for a prolonged discussion at the meeting of the auxiliary of the American Legion, Orange county council, held at the American Legion headquarters here yesterday.

Reports from representatives of the units of the county present indicated that the greater number of them favored withdrawing at least part of the sum they were sending to San Fernando at the present time and using it toward the salary of a contact officer for Orange county.

The matter was finally tabled when Mrs. Fannie Reeves, of Santa Ana, asked that no definite action be taken as it was the intention of the Orange county council to call a joint meeting of the council and the auxiliary in the near future. Mrs. Reeves gave an outline of the welfare work being done here and of the need for an officer to look after families of disabled veterans. Commanders of posts do not have the time to devote to cases where the contact officer is needed, she said.

The picnic planned by the county auxiliary for veterans at San Fernando July 18 was postponed owing to the fact that Mrs. Edwards, who has had charge of the picnics in the past, is in a hospital with a broken ankle. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Gertrude Bailey, committeewoman from the 11th district; Mrs. Bertha Robbins, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Michel March, of Upland. During the session Mrs. Bailey was endorsed by the organization for second vice president of the state. Mrs. March and Mrs. Bailey were presented with a number of gifts in honor of their birthdays, which had occurred recently. The three guests gave brief talks.

The announcement was made that a range felt hats with blue bands had been chosen by members of the Orange county auxiliaries to wear in the parade to be given at the coming convention in San Diego.

The baby unit from Brea, representatives of which were present for the first time at an auxiliary council meeting, were introduced. The meeting opened with a noon luncheon with about 75 women present. Tables were most attractive and were decorated with great glass bowls of exotic water lilies. At the base of the stems of the lilies tiny gold fish darted. The blossoms were in blues, vivid reds and yellows. The next meeting of the body will be held in Orange.

Yachting Party Starts Journey

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—The Ole Hanson yacht, San Clemente, formerly the Seabee, left the Spanish Village pier last night for a tour of Mexican waters. Ole Hanson, owner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Murphree and a party of guests made the trip. The first stop will be San Diego, from which place the yacht will cruise to Ensenada and other points along the Lower California coast. The trip is expected to last two weeks.

PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, July 10.—Mrs. Lewis Edmondson and children spent Friday with Mrs. Edmondson's mother, Mrs. Mary Hatch, at Long Beach. Laura Jean Long has returned home from a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Long of Los Angeles.

Guests who were entertained recently at the Newport Beach cottage of Mrs. Mary Key were Mrs. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and son, Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donald and children, Miss Margaret Key, George and Will Johnson, grandsons of Mrs. Key, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sprague and children of Fullerton. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pickenpaugh and children have returned from a three weeks vacation at Lake Almanor and Lassen National forest. They also visited Pickenpaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pickenpaugh of Chico.

Miss Eva Hale is entertaining a number of friends at the Long Beach cottage of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hale. Those included in the party are the Misses Margaret and Evelyn Henthorne and Norene Henry of Atwood, and Miss Frances Howard and Miss Doris Berry of Placentia.

Those who will appear in the production are Mrs. Gordon Pope, Mrs. Ella June LaPiere, Mrs. Lee Wuthernow, Mrs. Hollister Laude-Knaggs, Mrs. Norman Chamberlain, Mrs. Howard Planalp, Mrs. Leslie Weisgerber, William Riddell, Samuel Pierce, W. Q. Frost, Frank Goddard, Arthur Whipple and Art Stromstrom.

An invitation has also been issued to all who wish to take parts in productions given by the Community players to register with the secretary, Mrs. H. Laude-Knaggs.

ANTI-LIQUOR ESSAYS READ BY OFFICIAL

PLACENTIA, July 10.—Mrs. Pearl Hess, state superintendent of scientific temperance instruction, was speaker of the afternoon at the regular meeting of the Placentia W.C.T.U., which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Blackmer.

In her talk Mrs. Hess declared the knowledge of the liquor situation which school children are obtaining from certain daily papers.

Essays which school children of the county wrote for the scientific temperance instruction contest formed the basis of her conclusions, and excerpts from the essays were read, showing the ideas which children obtain from reading the daily papers. An interesting collection of Orange county and state posters on the evils of cigarettes and liquor were shown, some of them being clever, some amusing, and many showing artistic talent in a high degree for grade students.

The work of the Richfield school came in for particular mention. Mrs. Hess stating that nothing finer had come in from any part of the country than the work turned in by fifth and sixth grade students of that school under the direction of Mrs. Carmen Adams. These posters will be on exhibition at the county fair this fall and every one will have an opportunity to view them.

Following Mrs. Hess' talk, the regular business of the meeting began with the report of the secretary, Mrs. Schade, after which Mrs. E. H. Brunemeier reported on the Loyal Temperance Legion work. The newly established Bradford avenue branch now has 24 members, the Primrose branch 29 and 25 are attending the Melrose Mexican branch. In regard to this latter legion, Mrs. Brunemeier stated that Rev. John R. Janeway, pastor of the Mexican Methodist church at Atwood, who has been the leader of this group, will go to Los Angeles in the fall, and it will be necessary to find another leader.

The president, Mrs. Guy L. Kay, read a report from Mrs. T. B. Welch, of the soldiers and sailors committee, showing pillows, slippers, socks and games sent the hospital at San Diego.

It was voted to merge the picnic of the local union with the county picnic, which will be held August 15.

The meeting was closed after the reading by Mrs. Blackmer of a speech by W. B. Stafford, judge of the supreme court, and tea was served by the hostess.

To Stage Joint Community Meet

ORANGE, July 10.—The joint meeting of the Orange community chamber of commerce and the El Modena, the Villa-Park-Olive and the West Orange farm centers will be held at the Woman's clubhouse Friday evening. The event will open with a 6:30 p. m. dinner.

BRANCH OFFICE FOR PLACENTIA BEING SOUGHT

PLACENTIA, July 10.—The Southern California Edison company will be requested to establish a local office at Placentia as the result of a motion made by W. M. Bradford at the chamber of commerce meeting yesterday. Since the local bank has discontinued collecting the light bills, it has worked a hardship on the post-office force, for many of the Mexicans are not capable of making out money orders and it has been necessary for the post office employees to do it.

Another subject which came up for discussion, being introduced by William Bielefeldt, was fertilizer trucks, each one of which is a different size and shape, necessitating the buyer of fertilizer to measure each truckload. A motion was passed that the secretary be instructed to write a resolution to the board of supervisors, asking that the scales of weights and measures stamp every fertilizer truck with its actual capacity.

Members of a radio committee composed of Charles E. Lee, chairman; Mrs. Nellie Cline and Mrs. T. L. McFadden, have been appointed and have promised a Placentia program over one of the Los Angeles stations soon.

W. J. Carmichael of Fullerton, head of the airport committee, was present, and gave a talk on the proposed lighter than air base. Carmichael stated that the committee was not asking help of the nearby communities, until the actual time comes when that help will be of real use. Information was asked regarding a recent article in the Santa Ana Register, which stated that Los Angeles was backing the Newport Beach site, and Carmichael replied that representatives from Santa Ana are meeting today with the Los Angeles chamber of commerce to present their proposition, and that Los Angeles is not at present backing any one site, but is giving each community a chance to present all the data in regard to its field.

At the close of Carmichael's speech a motion was passed that the Placentia chamber of commerce go on record as approving the work of the Brea airport committee as far as they have gone.

Bean Warehouse Employs Foreman

SMELTZER, July 10.—The board of directors of the Smeltzer Lima Bean Growers' association have hired Bob Garcia, of Ventura, as foreman of the local warehouse. Garcia, who was for a number of years foreman of the same warehouse under the ownership of the Golden West company, is expected to move here about the first of August.

The putting in of new elevators in the bean cleaner is completed and the skylights, which are being added at the warehouse for lighting purposes, are partly in.

Girl Injured In Fall From Auto

STANTON, July 10.—A minor automobile accident happened on Friday noon when little Ruth Fish fell from an automobile driven by her uncle, Lee Benson, near the Stewart garage while it was turning from Lincoln boulevard onto the Buena Park road. She was taken to a doctor's office in Buena Park, where she was watched through the afternoon and then taken to the Benson home. Beyond the nervous shock and a bruised head she was not hurt.

Millions of Families Depend on Dr. Caldwell's Prescription

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their systems. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used a year proves that it has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's

Place Vacation School On Route Of Bus Service

PLACENTIA, July 10.—An extension of the bus service to the Calvary-Nazarene daily vacation Bible school started this morning, giving many children in the surrounding territory a chance to come.

A bus driven by Don Milligan will be at the Stearns lease at 7:30 a. m., and will go through the Columbia and West Coast leases, reaching Olinda at 8:00 a. m. From Olinda it will proceed down Valencia street to Yrba Linda boulevard, go east to Yorba Linda and back to the church by way of Loma Vista and Alta Vista.

Miss Culter will drive through the Atwood district, picking up any children in that section who wish to attend.

The attendance at the school is now 172 and with the additional bus service many more will be added.

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED BY ODD FELLOWS

FULLERTON, July 10.—New officers were installed in the Odd Fellows lodge at a meeting Monday night, by W. D. Solesby, deputy district grand master of the lodge, and a team made up of Fullerton members.

Officers installed were: Noble grand, Clarence Zinke; vice grand, Wade Quast; recording secretary, G. S. Grunwald; financial secretary, O. S. Compton; treasurer, H. G. Patton; chaplain, Dick Goodwin; warden, E. F. Coursey; conductor, A. G. Meier. Others installed were: Right supporter to noble grand, D. Y. Becket; left supporter, George Beckmeyer; right supporter to vice grand, A. S. Johnson; left supporter, John Anderson; right scene supporter, A. K. Piper; left scene supporter, Vernon Brown; inside guardian, George Cornwell; outside guardian, Art Challis.

About 150 persons were served after the ceremony by members of the Rebekah lodge. The dining room of the Odd Fellows lodge was decorated in assorted flowers and the colors of the lodge.

Scouting Leaders Are Entertained

COSTA MESA, July 10.—A called meeting of the patrol leaders and other scouts was held at the home of Scoutmaster L. Willcutt Monday evening. Mrs. L. Willcutt was hostess.

A supper was served to the following leaders: Chisholm Brown, Jean Willcutt, Scribe Floyd Lewis, Bertram Smith and Walter Caruthers. Bertram Smith, a scout formerly of Minnesota, has sent for his transfer and W. Caruthers will be reinstated as scout in this troop.

Friday night, all scouts expect to attend the Epworth league minstrel show in a body.

turning from Lincoln boulevard onto the Buena Park road. She was taken to a doctor's office in Buena Park, where she was watched through the afternoon and then taken to the Benson home. Beyond the nervous shock and a bruised head she was not hurt.

LEAGUE WILL STAGE COMEDY ON THURSDAY

COSTA MESA, July 10.—Reports on the final dress rehearsal of the minstrel show to be given Thursday and Friday nights by the Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church were reported today to be very encouraging and a fine show is expected of the local young people taking part.

An old fashioned circle type minstrel show and a comedy, "The Countdown Millionaire" will be the entertainment that will be offered by 30 of the league members. Raymond Eastman is in charge of the show and helping him are Homer Melott, stage manager; Bob Fuller, advertising; and Lee Belding, in charge of tickets. The show is being presented to defray expenses on the annual budget of the Epworth league.

The cast for the "Countdown Minstrels" is as follows: Interlocutor, Lawrence Wright; end women, Margaret Seeber, Mildred Graham; end men, Walter Melott, Harold Long, Floyd Mitchell and Edward King; reader, Ramona Williams; soloist, Rose Melott; Madeline, Buddy Baker; ladies quartet, Juanita Seeber, Helen Willcutt, Golda Allen and Bertha King; male quartet, Lee Belding, Roy Bell, Jack Belding and D. B. Pierce; orchestra, Simon Plas, violin and director; Chisholm Brown, violin; Francis Flinn, trombone; Charles Plas, cornet and Raymond Eastman, saxophone.

The cast for the comedy, "The Countdown Millionaire" is as follows: General Bill Previous (The Millionaire), Francis Flinn; Teddy Highbrow (the aviator), Bob Fuller; Lady Queen Sheba Previous (a social leader), Susannah Erbe; Lillian, (a black French maid), Helen Sexton; Prefumery Previous (the Belle of Coontown), Flora Hunter; Lucius Hamm (the ragman), Ellis Crane; Officer Hunks (a colored policeman), Clyde Hunter.

S. A. ARTISTS ENTERTAIN AT LIONS SESSION

COSTA MESA, July 10.—Lion Ed Edick, local program chairman, gave a treat to members and visitors at the regular Tuesday Lions luncheon at the clubhouse. Miss Georgia Walton, violinist; Miss Marjorie Walton, pianist; and Miss Lillian Horwitz, reader, rendered a group of beautiful and interesting members. Among the particularly appreciated numbers by Miss Walton was one composed by former Vice-president Dawes.

Miss L. Horwitz gave her own composition on the "Constitution," which she had read during the recent oratorical contest held in Los Angeles.

Earl Patterson, chairman of the committee on attendance for the county council, reported that nine members expect to attend the council meeting to be held at Santa Ana July 15.

C. Te Winkle spoke of painting a Costa Mesa aviation sign for the east side of the clubhouse. A committee was appointed to look into necessary details and report later. Visitors were D. Hillyard, Miss Georgia Walton, Miss Marjorie Walton and Miss Lillian Horwitz of Santa Ana; M. B. McBride, of Long Beach; Leroy Anderson and S. E. Grooms, of Costa Mesa.

ler; Lady Queen Sheba Previous (a social leader), Susannah Erbe; Lillian, (a black French maid), Helen Sexton; Prefumery Previous (the Belle of Coontown), Flora Hunter; Lucius Hamm (the ragman), Ellis Crane; Officer Hunks (a colored policeman), Clyde Hunter.

ACCIDENT VICTIM MAKING RECOVERY

STANTON, July 10.—Miss Audrey Schmid, who was seriously hurt in an automobile accident last week, is improving. Mrs. Schmid, who received minor cuts on her right hand and limb in the accident, has been able to visit her daughter at the Fullerton hospital every day. A Schmid received one cut on his right hand. Their car was badly damaged and so was the car of S. M. Travers, of Long Beach, whose car collided with the Schmid car at the intersection of West Commonwealth and Highland avenue, Fullerton.

Travers and his family were on their way to Lake Arrowhead for a two weeks' vacation. While Travers and one of his passengers received cuts and bruises, they were able to continue their trip after arrangements could be made for conveyance.

W. C. T. U. BACKS CITY COUNCIL SCHOOL CHIEF

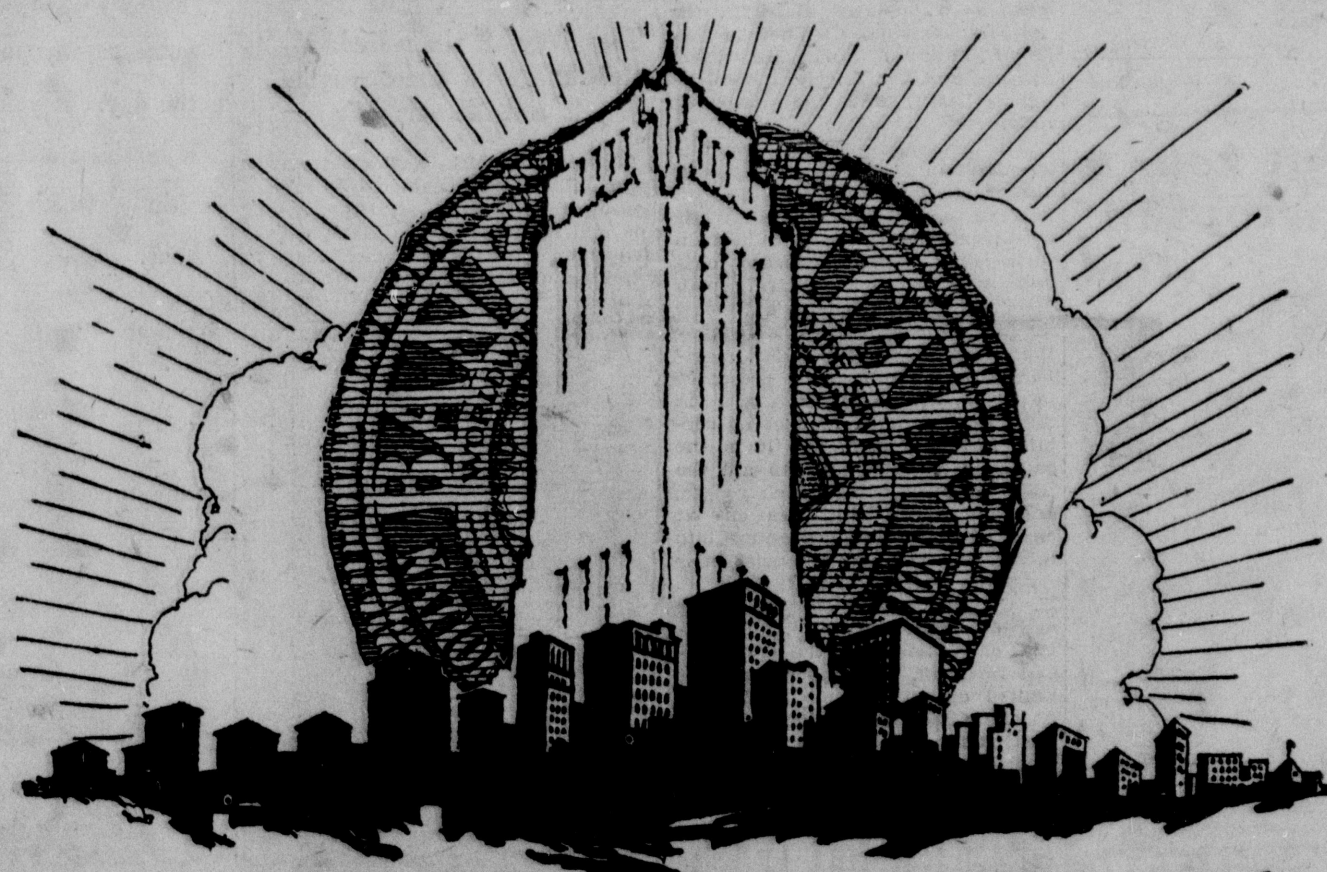

ORANGE, July 10.—The action of J. A. Cranston, superintendent of the public schools of Santa Ana in expressing his disapproval of teachers of the public schools smoking, and the action of the Orange Ministerial association and the Orange city council toward the abolition of billboards in the city, which shows women smoking, were commended by the W. C. T. U. at its regular meeting here yesterday. The organization pledged its support to the latter movement.

Reports from a membership drive showed that the local union now has 246 active members, 56 honorary members and 30 members in the Loyal Temperance legion. Reports of departmental officers were also given.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Clara Sumner, who used the parable of the talents as her subject. Mrs. M. Neville, president of the organization, was in charge of the meeting.

Change Date Of Yacht Regatta

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—Due to the fact that most of San Clemente's leading citizens will be absent, one party going on a riding trip, the other on a cruise of Mexican waters, the San Clemente yacht regatta for the coming week-end has been postponed. The regatta, the second annual cruise and race from Newport harbor to the Spanish Village, will be held some time in the fall, according to present plans.

An outstanding Bank

The Bank of Italy is an outstanding financial institution for the following reasons:

It pioneered branch banking in the United States. It gave all of its employees—from president to office boy—a share in the profits of the business. It originated the "out-in-the-open" method of banking. It made "of the people, by the people and for the people" banking tremendously successful in California. It established the world's first great "department store of finance." It proved the practicability of democratic, warm, human banking service. It created the school savings plan. It brought metropolitan banking service to many of the smallest communities of the state. It provided adequate financing for the farming and fruit interests of the state. It helped to make California one of the greatest empires of the world.

Indian Legend Is Woven In 'Roads To Romance' Hour

Indian Legend Is Woven In 'Roads To Romance' Hour

"Pelletta," the Indian legend which has been woven into a colorful pageant given annually at Escondido, will be dramatized by Jack and Ethyl during the "Roads to Romance" program, broadcast through NBC system stations tonight between 8 and 8:30.

The story is that of Hal-ah-wee, daughter of Poncho, chief of the Indians in San Pasqual, and her love for a white soldier of General Kearney's army. The fight between the Americans and General Pico and his Mexican conquerors has a place in the drama and much of the vivid history of Southern California is brought to the radio audience by the interpretation of the Motor Mates broadcast through stations KHQ Spokane; KOMO, Seattle; KGW Portland; KGO, Oakland; KPO San Francisco, and KFI, Los Angeles.

PROGRAM BASED ON ACTUAL EXPERIENCE

"Good Morning, Judge" is the title of an original skit to be presented by The Three Boys in a farcical manner as part of their 30-minute program from KGO commencing at 8:30 tonight.

Lon Protteau, pianist of The Three Boys of KGO, wrote "Good Morning, Judge." The plot is based on an actual experience which The Three Boys of KGO had with a motorcycle cop and a judge in a California town when they tried to burn up highway in keeping a date with the KGO radio audience.

Surrounding this skit, The Three Boys of KGO will be heard playing and singing several groups of popular numbers.

Herbert Number Will Be Feature Of KFWB Program

Don Warner and his dance band, a special group brought together for radio purposes only at 7 o'clock tonight will play as the feature of their half hour program over KFWB, an arrangement for small orchestra of Victor Herbert's Serenade Oriental.

It will be remembered that just before Victor Herbert died he wrote a suite of four serenades especially for Paul Whiteman, which ever since have been popular for concert work.

The attempt of Don Warner with a band of nine men only to get the meat and rhythm of a selection written especially for Whiteman's 35-piece band is, to say the least, interesting.

The balance of the half hour will be taken up with dance arrangements of fox trots popular today.

MAKE PLANS FOR PLAYGROUND USE

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—

Supervised play on the school grounds was given sanction by the school board when it met Monday under a plan advanced by La Escondido del Mar, the school for unusual children which has been established by Miss Elba Johnson and associates.

Use of the school grounds for the children of the school was requested and permission given with the provision that all Laguna children be permitted to be on equal terms with those of La Escondido del Mar. Play is to be supervised by Mr. McDonald, who is associated with Miss Johnson in the school. He is an instructor in mathematics at the University of California and has devoted much time to supervised play.

Some time ago the school board discussed having a supervisor for the summer, but funds did not permit the outlay required. Under the plan adopted it becomes possible to get the result without making the outlay, it is explained.

Beautiful Home Grounds are not accidents.

Wherever you go and see beautiful flowers, well kept lawns, vigorous gardens, healthy trees, you may well know that there someone is working, watering, and—

Fertilizing

Fertilizing is the keynote of success in the growing of beautiful plant life. Here, in Orange County, practically everything DEMANDS careful fertilization. You can be sure that your lawn is not at its best, your flowers not as large as they should be, your shrubbery not as green and luxuriant as it is on well kept estates—if you are not using some kind of fertilizer.

We especially commend for your use one of the following high-grade fertilizers:

GROZIT, Sheep Manure
Swift's VIGORO
13 Nitrogen BLOOD MEAL
10 Nitrogen FISH MEAL

Any of the above will give you big value for your money

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

When the stewards of the Jockey club lifted the suspension on Laverne Fator, America's premier jockey, they warned him . . . They said he must ride to satisfaction in the future . . . And that his work in the saddle would be carefully scrutinized at all times . . . Bobby Jones never has his hair combed . . . But the Haig uses grease on his locks. . . The Babe says Al Simmons, of the A's, is the most improved batter in the majors . . . And that when the magnates abolished the most valuable player prize they did Simmons out of one grand. . . Johnny Farrell sported an Irish green blazer with brass buttons at the open championship. He was ordered to wear it by the clothing company that paid him ten grand to say that he wears their clothes . . . When the Jones got in a trap in the open a magnificent femme right behind him said— "Oh! Oh! The poor dear boy" . . . And Jones threw away his cigar.

THE ROB GETTING SERIOUS

The Jones boy, it is understood from O. B. Keeler, Atlanta sport columnist and the right-hand man of the golf king, is quitting the game in a serious way soon. Robert doesn't make any money out of golf in a direct way and he has a family and an infant law business and trophies don't pay rent—when they are engraved. There is no doubt that Jones is a strict amateur, but he will not deny himself that his golf reputation has hurt him. But there is no doubt that you can't win law cases out in the pasture and that if you keep on your game you have to play plenty.

BUT WANTS COUPLA MORE

Jones, according to Keeler, has two ambitions. He wants to win the American open and amateur championships in the same season and he wants to win the British amateur championship. He has a great chance to win the two major American championships this year. Already he has won the open championship with a phenomenal margin of superiority and no one is going to pick an amateur to beat him if he goes to California in September. It is very likely that he will play in the amateur championship if he has the ambition to equal the record of "Chick" Evans and win the two major titles.

ONLY THE RICH CAN GO

Jones will be an overwhelming favorite to win the amateur if he does go to California. Not only because of his victory in the open, but for the reason that the competition may not be hot.

With the exception of George Van Elm there is hardly an amateur in the country who can be rated close to him. Van Elm, no doubt, will enter the tournament. That's his home territory. And there will be a lot of western golfers.

But from the conversation heard during the open championship there will be few eastern amateurs in the tournament. They figure they can't afford it.

In addition to a bulky transportation bill the easterners figure it would take them away from their business for a month and even if golf has its profitable sidelines there are not many amateurs who can duck business for a month.

WELL, WHAT OF IT?

Looks like the Cubs and the Athletics in October. If there is anything in the fable that the leaders in early July are the winners.

The Cubs have a hard road ahead of them, but it does look now as if the Athletics can be stopped.

They're leading the league in hitting and have the three leading pitchers. And what more could be needed?

GUS SONNENBERG LOSES FALL TO 'STRANGLER' LEWIS BUT RETAINS WORLD'S MAT TITLE

BOSTON, July 10.—Gus Sonnenberg's yard-wide shoulders were pinned to the mat for the first time in his career last night, but he has the world heavyweight wrestling champion today.

After losing the first fall to Ed ("Strangler") Lewis in their title bout before a crowd of 25,000 at Fenway park, the former Dartmouth football star rallied to take the next two falls and the match.

Lewis scored the first fall in 17 minutes, 41 seconds, with a breast-lock.

The champion brought into play his famous flying tackle to score the deciding falls in 18 minutes, 38 seconds, and 2 minutes, 50 seconds, respectively.

But from this point on Lewis was on the defensive. The champion took the second fall in eighteen minutes and thirty-eight seconds by the use of his famous flying tackle after having trapped Lewis and following several head locks.

The third fall came quickly. After having been pushed from the ring, Sonnenberg climbed through the ropes faking grogginess. As Lewis started forward Gus cut loose with another of his sensational leaps and the "Strangler" was down in two minutes and fifty-one seconds.

HOLMES WELL UP IN ELKS GOLF TOURNEY

Ed Holmes, Santa Ana Country club champion and leading golfing representative of Santa Ana lodge No. 794, B. P. O. E., was still well up in the Elks' national golf tournament, now under way at Sunset Fields in connection with the B. P. O. E. convention in Los Angeles.

Holmes started his final rounds today with a 36-hole aggregate of 156 strokes, nine behind the leader, Russell Thompson, of Glendale. The Santa Ana Elk shot a 76 Monday and came back with an 80 yesterday. The other Santa Ana players are out of the running.

Dave Floyd, former North Carolina State college tackle, will coach athletics at Highland Park high school in Chicago during 1929-30.

Stars Accept City League Challenge

'GRUDGE' GAME MONDAY: BEACH BEATS ANAHEIM

Santa Ana's Stars, defending night baseball champions of Southern California, will meet a picked team of players from the Santa Ana City League in the Bowl next Monday.

Arrangements for this much-discussed Civil War were officially completed today when John Wilcox, business manager of the Stars, accepted a challenge issued yesterday by John Lutz and George Lackaye, spokesmen for the City leaguers.

The game has been in the making for three years, or ever since the Stars became anything in the night ball firmament.

City league boosters always have contended that a club could be assembled from their circuit that could beat or at least press the outfit that has represented Santa Ana in the Orange County league. Feeling that in such a game they would have everything to lose and nothing to gain, the Stars have steadfastly spurned the annual challenge but they got hot under the collar today and took up the cudgels against their brethren.

The game is expected to draw a capacity crowd to the Sixth and Olive street plant of sport. Night baseball fanciers always have wanted to see this type of a "grudge game" and now they are going to get their want. Incidentally, it will be the first game the Stars have played at home in more than two weeks.

The City leaguers will have a formidable looking crew on the field. Walt Jordan, undefeated in five games in the Santa Ana loop, probably will pitch for the hastily collected club although Merl Youst may get the call.

Bill Middlebrook and "Bono" Koral will be behind the log with such men as John Lutz, Everett Lutz, Jerry Heard, "Whitey" Pea, Roy Heard, Blanchard Beatty, Curt Youl, Warren Sullivan, Don Jerome and Harold English in the infield and outfield.

The Stars say they will show their townsmen no mercy. They intend to use Joe Ochoa the full nine innings and utilize their strongest lineup.

LONG BEACH NOSES OUT ANAHEIM, 2 TO 1

The Long Beach Acorns were tied with Santa Ana's Stars for first place in the Orange County Night Baseball league today.

They got that way last evening when they nosed out Anaheim, 2 to 1, in a pitcher's battle between Howard Morning and Al Bushman on the Long Beach lot.

"Butch" Farrow, husky Acorn center, who beat Santa Ana with a home run a month ago, tripled in the last of the seventh and came home on Maylin's single with the winning run. Long Beach had scored first in the fourth and Anaheim had tied the count at 1 to 1 in the first of the seventh when Bill Bushman doubled with a mat on second base.

MERRIWELL STUFF IN THE CLINCHES IS SPORT'S THRILL

A "punch in a pinch" makes great athletes. The sport world is full of fellows who made good because they had heart and courage in hazardous predicaments. Bobby Jones sunk a 14-foot putt on the last green to tie Al Espinosa in the last U. S. open golf tournament. That's just one instance of coming through. W. M. Braucher tells of others in the article below.

Two Tiernan pitchers had everything and three El Corral gunners had nothing last night and the Tiernans clinched the first half of the Santa Ana City league race even with more ease than had been expected. The score was 20 to 3.

While Walt Jordan and "Bono" Koral were limiting the Cowboys to three hits, their hustling teammates were picking up a 10-run lead in the first two innings off Elwood Lindley and Bernard Carlisle. The rest was a formality. Horace Snow took up the Cowboy burden in the third and off him the champions increased their margin with 10 more runs in the last seven frames.

Jordan worked the first four hits and allowed the three El Corral runs. Koral blanked the Cowboys with one blow in the final frame.

It was just a cakewalk for the Tiernans who batted around in the second and the fifth by taking advantage of slovenly infelding and the wildness of their opposition's pitcher.

The game completed the first half of the City league season. The second round will begin next Tuesday night. The score:

Harvard Bans 'Talkies' From Stadium

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 10.—Harvard has banned the "talkies" as far as sound reproduction of its athletic events is concerned.

The university's stand on the sound picture question became known today after the Pathe sound news had been informed by Harvard officials that only "silent" movie cameras would be allowed in the stadium when the Harvard-Yale, Oxford-Cambridge track meet is held.

CHAVEZ MEETS RUGGED RIVAL AT WILMINGTON

With the winner tentatively promised an early main event with either Bobby LaSalle or Jack Sparr, Santa Ana's crack young welterweight, Zenaydo Chavez, and the tough Long Beach trial horse, Joe Bell, were ready today for the bell that sends them into their 10-round windup at Wilmington tonight.

Bell is confident of victory and believes that he will score a knockout over Chavez. He has shortened his left hand and has perfected a left jab which he hopes will be successful in keeping Chavez at a distance and from setting with his right hand. He is also punching harder and appears to have lost the habit of losing his head and slugging when he is stung.

Bell has been installed a slight favorite because of his showing in the gymnasium. Chavez has looked bad all week and has been beaten in his workouts every day. The Mexican appeared rather weak and uninterested against Jack McKnight Monday, but may spring a surprise when he gets in the ring.

His knockout victories over Verle Whitehead, Billy Clark and Johnny Adams prove that he is no set-up and there are many who believe that he will land his sleep-producing wallop on Bell.

In the six-round semi-windup Jack McKnight will enter the ring a slight favorite over Jackie Stewart, who also hails from Santa Ana.

RIVERS MEETS RIVERS IN GO HERE TONIGHT

Arizona Joe Rivers, two time conqueror of "Bad Boy" Bobby La Salle and rated one of the best welterweight fighters in the southwest, steps into the Orange County Athletic club ring tonight to test Jimmie Rivers, local scrapper, in a scheduled 10-round main event. The pair clash at 148 pounds with Arizona Joe a slight favorite to win.

The fact that Arizona Joe is choice doesn't mean that he will have an easy time with the Fullerton battler nor does it mean that Arizona Rivers is a cinch to grab the long end of the call. Jimmie Rivers is anything but a "soft-touch." He has demonstrated time and again that it takes a fairly good boy to beat him, in fact a welterweight able to lead Jimmie to the post must have plenty on the ball. Only recently Jimmie galloped to a dead heat with Joe Bell, the Long Beach flash, and prior to the Bell fight grabbed the duke from Johnny Romero, the Mexican bandit, at San Diego.

In sending Arizona Rivers to bat against Jimmie Rivers, Matchmaker Henry T. Foust is showing a main event far above the average staged by the local club and a fight that promises to pack the arena.

The local fighter is now regarded as the outstanding drawing card

GERMAN HEAVY SHUNS BOUT TO SPITE MANAGER

BY DAVIS J. WALSH (I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, July 10.—James Joseph Tunney, the man who once permitted himself to know prize fighters, had a very definite mind of his own and the will to impose it on others. At least in the vulgar matter of money, Dempsey always seemed to know what he wanted—and got it. Tommy Loughran is a man who insists on doing his thinking personally.

And the three of them are about as stubborn as a thoroughly vindictive canary bird in comparison with Max Schmeling, who today stands suspended in four states and two foreign territories because his personal antipathy for a discarded manager is stronger than his judgment.

Schmeling cares nothing for the wishes of a boxing commission that not only can keep him out of employment here but also in Massachusetts, Illinois, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Kansas, the Dominion of Canada and possibly the whole of Europe.

Cares Nothing For Counsel

He cares nothing for the counsel or the desires of a multi-million dollar corporation like Madison Square Garden and the managers he deigns to recognize have no more standing with him than has the disesteemed Arthur Bulow. In fact, much less. He at least is guided in his actions by what he believes Bulow doesn't want.

The German will meet Jack Sharkey somewhere—perhaps in Detroit, Windsor, Ont., or in Jersey—with the heavyweight title at stake on or about September 26. This, in spite of the fog of uncertainty now pervading the situation, is almost certain to come about. But it will be the other parties concerned who will contrive to have the meeting take place, not Schmeling. He is a man absolutely obsessed by what the French allude to as an idee fixe.

The fixation has to do with Herr Bulow and, rather than see the latter gain a point, Schmeling apparently would lose a fortune. He can be kept out of work indefinitely by the local commission unless he accepts the match for which Bulow signed him, an August date with Phil Scott. Apparently, he is willing to waive all immunity in this respect for the inverse pleasure of fooling Bulow.

May Test Agreement

It is all very well to talk of Schmeling going back to Germany and doing his boxing there until the Bulow contract expires or the New York commission weakens. The latter has some sort of an agreement with the International Boxing federation and, while Germany is friendly to Schmeling, it might have to string with the parent body.

The American Legion Bugle and Drum corps and the Excelsior Creamery company went through the formality of completing the first half of the Santa Ana Twilight league's split season yesterday with the Legionnaires winning as they played, 17 to 1.

The championship was decided Monday when the Richfield Oil company fell before the Auto Club of Orange County, giving the Shell Oil company a first mortgage on first place.

The Legion-Excelsior windup was of a contest postponed from the Fourth of July. The Legionnaires scored in every inning except the fourth, and had one fat rally in the sixth which netted eight scores. Cochems, the Excelsior moundsman, was hit freely throughout while Trusty and Hansbarger kept their bingles well scattered.

There will be no more Twilight league competition this week, the second half not starting until Monday. The Twilight league All-Stars will take a whirl at night baseball Friday, however, when they meet the Tienans, City league champions, in an exhibition game in the Bowl. The Twilighters were to practice today.

CANZONERI TO ASK DELAY FOR MANDELL BOUT

By WILLIAM J. DUNN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, July 10.—Postponement of the lightweight championship match between Sammy Mandell, 135-pound champion, and Tony Canzoneri, challenger, at Chicago August 2 seemed certain today as the result of an eye injury received by Canzoneri against Phil McGraw, Detroit Greek, in a 10-round bout at the Queensboro stadium last night.

Canzoneri won every round and did everything but knock out the tough trial horse of the lightweight division, but the victory was a costly one.

McGraw opened a severe cut over Canzoneri's right eye in a skirmish near the ropes in the sixth round. The wound bled profusely and the westerner aggravated it by concentrating his attack in that region during the last four rounds.

Maddened by the injury, Canzoneri did everything in his power to stop McGraw during the last four rounds but he was unable to bring the rugged Detroit boy down.

Manager Sammy Goldman announced after the fight that the injury would prevent Canzoneri from entering training in time to meet Mandell August 2 and that he would seek a postponement of the Chicago match.

TWO RIVERS' MEET AT ARENA TONIGHT

In Orange county and while he has never done anything to warrant front fight recognition Jimmie is coming along fast and may go to the top. His big bid comes tonight against the highly rated Arizona leather-pusher.

The four-round semi-windup brings out Tony (Baby-Face) Moreno and Battling Brown. Moreno is the youngster who surprised the fans by taking "Mexican Mickey" Walker into camp in the main event last week and is the making of a big box-office attraction. Tony is favored to win.

Luis Medina and Johnny Gabuco, 120-pounders, tangle in a four-round return match. They staged a whale of a tussle last week.

Bert Wagner and James Rios, welterweights, mix in the four-round third spot. Marvin Pina meets Urban Hernandez in the second and Kid Lucas battles Louis Garcia in the opener.

The first bout starts at 8:30.

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, July 10.—The first annual meeting of the Agua Caliente Jockey club, successor to the Tijuana Jockey club, will open Saturday, December 28, and continue 87 days until Sunday, March 13, of next year. This announcement was made today by President Wirt G. Bowman and General Manager James N. Crofton.

Coincident with this designation of the opening date, Crofton announced that the Wurster company, of Los Angeles, had been the successful bidder on the second contract for the grand stand. Meanwhile work on the $2,000,000 plant, that promises to be the most distinctive, picturesque and up-to-date extant, is going ahead apace.

Reds Ask Waivers On Dutch Ruether

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The Mission club of the Pacific Coast league has asked for waivers on "Dutch" Ruether, former New York Yankee pitcher, it was learned today. Ruether has been troubled by a sore arm all season. When other club owners passed up Ruether, "Red" Killifer, manager of the Missions, said that he would keep Ruether the rest of the season rather than see him leave the coast circuit.

STUBBORNNESS MAY COST GERMAN TITLE

Windsor sounds like the spot but Ontario also "works" with New York. At that, it wouldn't be astounding if, with a chance for a big fight, the whistle blew and Ontario stopped working. Illinois, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and the other "workers," however, are almost in duty bound to play along with New York.

My guess is that, if the fight has to leave this state, it will be taken either to New Jersey or the Detroit-Windsor site. Both are good sport but, so far as Windsor is concerned the present Garden crowd may be a little timorous about setting too far from home. Detroit and its vicinity has everything but proximity to the source of the Garden's prestige. I may be wrong but I think the boys in the front office are like a lot of us. They have an abiding fear of the unknown and Detroit, Windsor, Chicago and distant cities are pretty far from Wall street. However, there is no 25 per cent government tax in Ontario and that is quite an item.

Conference With Sharkey
Anyhow, William F. Carey is to have a talk with the commission about everything and a conference with Sharkey, to whom he is obligated to name opponent and date by July 15, although an extension of that date is likely to be arranged. The inference to be taken from these facts and from Carey's statement that he "has been thinking of Detroit, Chicago, Windsor, New Jersey and even Miami" is that the fight will be held, as scheduled.

If it is, however, it will come about through the efforts of Carey and the boxing commission of some friendly state. Schmeling apparently won't aid by so much as the lifting of a careless eyebrow. Fame and fortune presumably await him. And they can keep right on awaiting him while he attends to something important, namely, the worsting of a man who once was his manager, his companion and his friend.

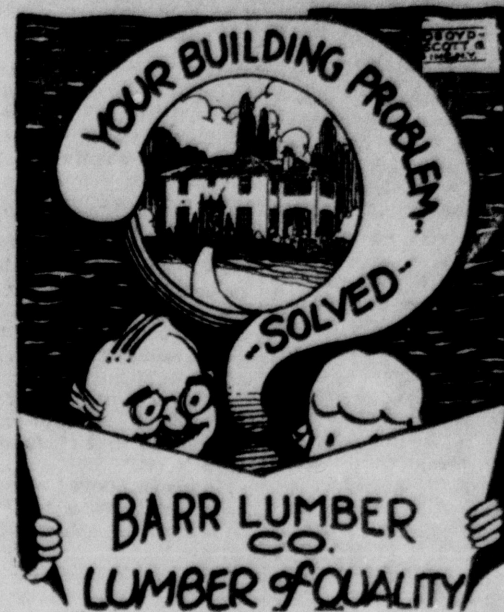

It will be hard to keep a man like that out of the heavyweight championship or anything else he happens to want.

HERE it is—the biggest development since balloon tires! Goodrich air containers eliminate 95% of tire trouble—assure 30% more mileage. Imagine it! Punctures eliminated. Uniform air pressure absolutely insured.

Come in—right away! We will be glad to demonstrate this wonderful invention.

SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY OFFER

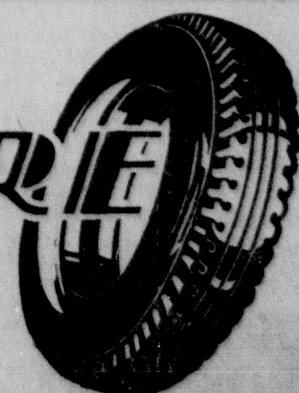

Full allowance made for your old tubes on a set of new air containers

LOOK OUT! There is danger ahead on the hot roads this hot weather for tires whose weakened condition may cause heat prostration. Figures show that more weak tires go out of service during the month of July than any other month of the year.

Here's real co-operation for you! Just at the time when you need tires most and when you appreciate a real liberal tire offer we announce to local motorists a "once-a-year" buying opportunity to get the finest tires ever made at the best prices ever offered. Tire quality is hard to see—but you can always recognize the brand. When you see genuine Goodrich Tires—Silvertowns, Cavaliers, Commanders—offered at the above money-saving prices, then you will know it is time to unbutton the old pocket-book and invest your tire money in sure mileage-makers.

Jungle Breath

© 1927 by NEA Service Ben Lucien Burman

THIS HAS HAPPENED
LINCOLN NUNNALLY, elderly American chemist, mysteriously summoned to the queer little jungle-bordered town of PORTO VERDE, in west central Brazil, encounters an old friend, VILAK, who tells him it was he who had sent for him.

Vilak's cousin, ELISE MARRBERRY, an American girl, owns a coffee plantation and other land near Porto Verde and has received mysterious warnings to get out of the country. Vilak is alarmed, because several deaths already have occurred and the superstitious natives think some supernatural force is at work.

The day Nunnally arrives another man is killed, TONY BARBETTA, one of Elise Marberry's foremen. He had been hit with a club in the hands of LIMNEY POTTS, another foreman. Before he died a strange paralysis took hold of him, and Vilak confides to Nunnally that he is certain Limney Potts, though he may have struck the victim, was not the murderer. That evening Vilak induces Nunnally to come with him on a visit to the house of GAYLORD PRENTISS, a reticent and forbidding man, known to be an enemy of Elise. Vilak believes Prentiss is somehow involved in the mysterious deaths.

Before going to Prentiss' place, Vilak and Nunnally call on Elise Marberry. Vilak refuses to let her go with them. He and Nunnally, on their way to Prentiss', sight a party of natives working on a railroad. Nearby is a fire, though the night is hot. Nunnally regards this as strange.

NOW BEGIN THE STORY CHAPTER IX

Their presence had been noticed. One of the laborers, who appeared to be a sort of foreman, walked behind a dilapidated freight car on a siding. He reappeared in a moment, followed by an immaculately white-limbed individual, whose bearing immediately marked him as the chief. His skin was dark, but it was the tan that came from long exposure to the tropical sun; his face was well molded, the nose long but thin, the mouth sensitive and small. On his upper lip was a small, carefully trimmed mustache. He was obviously a white man, and judging by the blackness of his hair and the perfection of his intonation, a high caste Portuguese.

He bowed politely to the visitors. "You would wish something, cavalheiros?" he asked. His manner was unmistakably that of one who could be as much at ease at some stately reception in one of the European capitals as here with twenty-five section hands in the jungle of Porto Verde.

"Nothing, cavalheiro," Vilak replied with equal urbanity. "We merely ride, see the torches, and walk over to look. You come to protect the tracks from the rising river?"

"Yes, senhor. We come from Aviloes." He pulled a leaf off a palm tree and began fanning himself. "At Aviloes there is fear that the floods will be very bad. Many think the great dam will burst. I hope it is not so. It is not pretty, a flood. Nor cheap. It costs us on the railroad much money. Many, many rails. And it is not a great railroad which runs only a few hundred kilometers to the coffee plantations and the Englishmen's mines in the mountains. Nor is it rich. Each year in the rainy season we come. Here I will raise a track, here I will make a pile, and perhaps shall I start to survey a new line, one which shall go from Porto Verde to Santa Crato. They talk of this, but yet I do not know."

"Do you think you will be here long?"

He shrugged his shoulders. "Two weeks, a month perhaps, I cannot say. There is much to do." An altercation broke out between two of the laborers driving a stake. One of them jerked out a knife. The Portuguese hurried over. Coolly, quickly he snatched it away; the argument ended. "They are troublesome, my villains," he said, as he returned to the visitors. "No worse are there in all Brazil. But on the railroad we take what we can."

Vilak offered him a cigarette. The other took it. They chatted amiably a moment, then the two Americans left. They remounted their horses and rode up the narrow lane which led to the higher ground above the town and the parasol pine marking the fatal occurrence of the afternoon. Reaching the tree, they dismounted again and tied their horses. All about them was a blackness almost Stygian, but though there was little light, the variety of sound was infinite. Here a swelling brook murmured and by its murmur re-

In buying coffee the trademark to look for is Hills Bros'

Arab

HILLS BROS.' ARAB stands for coffee quality developed by Controlled Roasting—the patented, continuous process that roasts coffee a few pounds at a time. No other coffee tastes like Hills Bros. Coffee because none is roasted the same way.

He bent over, ran a finger along the edge of the ponderous gate, and gave a grunt of satisfaction. "Thought I might find it. Two copper wires concealed here so that when the gate opens an electric circuit is broken, probably ringing an alarm bell in the house. Good job. Tremendous gate, this. He's spread the story that the barred wire all about here is carrying a high voltage current. I don't believe it, except for the fact that the only respectable dynamo in the neighborhood is on Elise's plantations and I know he's not getting power from that. Still he might have rigged up something. We'd better be careful."

He withdrew a small wire from his pocket and began to pick the massive lock. As he did so, the cracked loudly. Both men started. brush on the other side of the creek

TUSTIN

TUSTIN, July 10.—Miss Virginia Forney left yesterday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Ed Healey of Encinitas. Miss Amza Johnson spent last week at Balboa Beach. Master Joe Kiersey, who has been extremely ill the past two weeks, is reported to be improving rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rhoad who have been spending the summer in Ada, Oklahoma, have written to friends here that they have taken a side trip to Illinois, where they visited relatives, and returned through Kentucky. In Kentucky they visited the Mammoth Cave, Tennessee, and in Arkansas were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson. They expect to return to Tustin soon. George Allison has as guests this week, his brother and sister-in-law from Montana. It was announced that Mrs. Eustis who has been with the Home Cafe for some time, will be the new supervisor at the Tustin union high school cafeteria for the coming year. Mrs. Eustis is said to be most expert in culinary lines. Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Humeston had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hart and son, Russel Mort, and Miss Frances Frishman, of San Pedro.

The Tustin troop of Boy Scouts left today for summer camp at Camp Ro-Ki-Li. They expect to be gone ten days. Upon arriving, they will meet their scoutmaster, Charles Greenwood, who will take charge of them during the outing.

Orange County Auto Crashes Kill 14 In Three Months

DEATH TOTALS SHOW COST OF CARELESSNESS

Fourteen deaths resulted from automobile crashes in Orange county during the first three months of this year, according to figures recently compiled by the state division of motor vehicles. In an effort to create a spirit of caution on the part of operators of motor vehicles, the state division is planning to keep the totals of deaths by counties in the future and thus attempt to bring the increasing cost of carelessness closer home by revealing the tragic facts as they apply to each county.

Santa Ana drivers are cautioned to be on the alert at all times while on the highway to avoid the possibility of being involved in accidents that may add to this mounting total. Four principal causes are discovered in a survey made by the state division for the appalling total of accidents and their resultant toll of suffering and death. Particular stress is placed in the warning issued by the division against reckless "cutting in," speeding up when approached from the rear by another car, failure to yield the right-of-way and failure to sound the horn when passing another vehicle.

These particular offenses are claimed in the report issued by the division to be contributory in a large degree to the toll of accidents and the failure of motorists to properly observe the law governing the approaching and passing of vehicles is cited as the cause of the majority of fatal accidents.

In commenting on the report, Frank G. Snook, chief of the division of motor vehicles, said: "Too many motorists seem to have the impression that it is a disgrace to be passed by another car. Instead of giving way to the vehicle behind them, they step on the gas and spurt ahead, closing up the gap between them and the next car and often forcing the man trying to pass to cut in in order to dodge out of the way of a car approaching from the opposite direction.

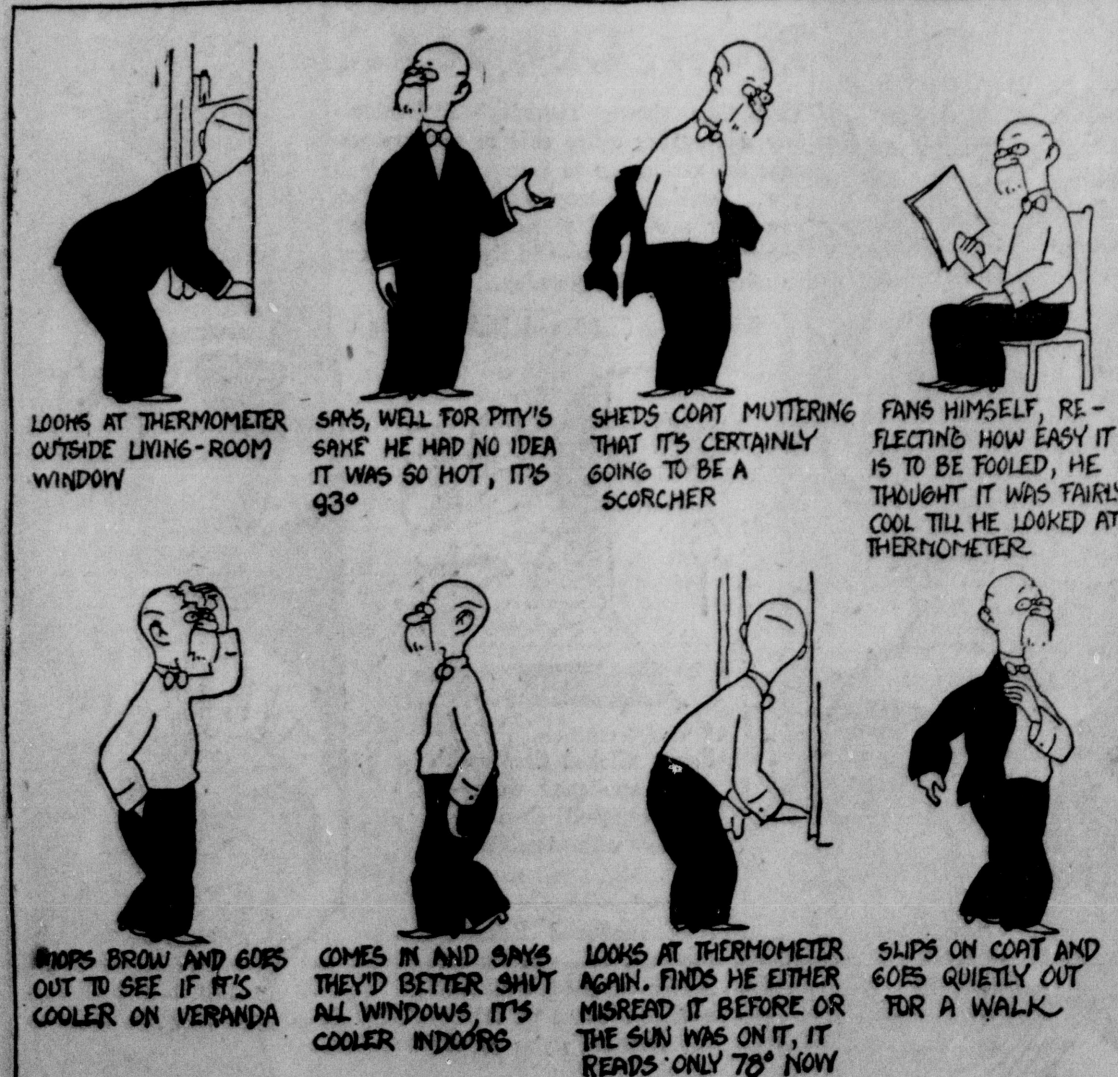

"Another cause of accidents is the failure of the driver to give way when he sees a car attempting to pass another swerve out of line ahead and come toward him. Often this will happen when the oncoming driver has just enough room to make it. But instead of slowing up, many drivers keep coming on at the same rate of speed, forcing the other man to cut in too soon or causing a side swipe. This course also compels one of the drivers to take to the gravel at the edge of the road at high speed. Our records show that 752 persons were killed or injured during the last six months by driving off the roadway."

The total deaths from auto accidents in the state, according to the figures contained in the report, reached a figure of 1006 for the six-month period.

TWO VIEWS OF NEW ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL

St. Joseph's hospital, beautiful new building of the Sisters of St. Joseph, now nearing completion on Stewart drive, Orange, will be one of the most modern hospitals in Southern California. Front and rear views of the hospital are shown below. It was built and equipped at a cost of nearly $1,000,000 and will contain 100 beds. All of the latest developments in surgical equipment are being installed. While no definite date for the formal dedication of the building has been set, it is understood that the event will take place the first of September. Furnishings now are being installed in the hospital which are practically completed with the exception of the interior decorating.

WINBIGLER IN EXCHANGE TALK TELLS OF TOUR

How he traveled 30,000 miles by steamer, hardly leaving the Pacific ocean, was described yesterday to members of the Santa Ana Exchange club by Theo A. Winbigler, who recently returned from a six-month journey.

A few of the highlights of the trip, as related by Winbigler, included a month in the South Sea Islands, caves in Australia containing underground rivers on which tourists sailed; Java, the storehouse of the world for spices, coffee, rice, tea and similar articles; Singapore, the Orient's largest port; Japan, where the people work like ants to get ahead, and Honolulu, which is fast becoming the playground for the Pacific coast tourists, according to the speaker. On the trip from Singapore to Hong Kong, lasting five days, there were 2200 coolies aboard and 11 first class passengers, five of whom could speak English, Winbigler said, recalling that the first class portion of the ship was separated from the coolie portion by steel bars and that armed guards were constantly on duty for protection.

In China there is nothing to fight for, but still the people battle, said the speaker, recalling that the day after he left Canton for Hong Kong a huge concrete railroad bridge was blown up. The summer palace in Peking, built by an empress dowager with a huge sum of money appropriated for the navy, attracted Winbigler's attention, he said. It contains a large ship built of white marble, built for the afternoon teas of the empress. This ship, the speaker remarked, was all the navy China got out of its huge appropriation.

Clyde Jenken, vice president, presided in the absence of President John Ott. The program was in charge of Gene Douglas. Mari-ono Rios, guest of Sol Gonzales, entertained the club with several

GOVERNOR WILL PARTICIPATE IN HIGHWAY FETE

Dedication of the newly-paved section of the state highway at Dana Point will take place July 18, with Gov. C. C. Young and other notables in attendance, according to an announcement made today by T. B. Talbert, president of the Orange County Coast association.

Following the dedication ceremonies, the association and the guests of honor will be the guests of S. H. Woodruff, of Dana Point, at a lamb barbecue dinner. Along with Governor Young, members of the county board of supervisors and highway officials from all parts of the state are expected to attend the affair.

The dedication of the new strip of pavement is said to be the beginning of plans to pave the highway all the way from Seal Beach to San Clemente. The plan calls for a 56-foot road with curbs, gutters, ornamental lights and trees. The Orange county coast road is third in the state in the amount of traffic carried.

EX-ROTARIANS' ORGANIZATION IS DESCRIBED

The story of an organization that carries on the Rotary program, composed of former Rotarians who, through some cause they could not prevent, have lost their classification in Rotary but who are in harmony with the aims and ideals of the organization and wish to carry on the work they have learned, was told to the Santa Ana Rotary club yesterday at its meeting at St. Ann's Inn. Thomas C. Scroggs, vice president of the National Bank of Commerce, Los Angeles, and president of the Los Angeles Altruistic club, was the man who told of the work of this group, which he termed as "post graduate Rotarians."

"The habits formed by those who take the work of Rotary seriously are not to be easily broken," the speaker said. "Some years ago I found myself in Los Angeles with no possibility of becoming affiliated with the Rotary club there because my classification was full and there was a long waiting list ahead of me. I found a group of men in a similar situation and we began to meet together. We discovered that there were other groups like us and the organization grew spontaneously."

"There are now nine clubs on the Pacific coast and others forming," Scroggs continued. "Membership requirements are that a man has been a Rotarian and lost his classification through no fault of his own. He must approach us voluntarily and be really interested in the Rotary program. Our name is composed from the phrase 'All True Rotarians.' We have a

CRAWLS AT 40 MILES HOUR

Here you see the world's speediest "caterpillar" in action. It is a new three-man armored combat tank, fastest and most effective death dealing weapon of its type ever developed. The tank is shown "crawling" up a hill in a ploughed field at the heretofore unheard of speed of 42 miles per hour in a successful demonstration before government officials at Fort Meade, Md. The tank, which can be converted into a caterpillar machine for use on highways in 14 minutes, attained a high speed of 62 miles per hour on its road tests.

purpose along the line of service and each club adopts some specific outlet. In Los Angeles our work is with the crippled children from the Orthopedic hospital. We have a fund that we loan children that will enable them to secure training that will teach them to become self-supporting.

"The purpose and objectives of Altruists are to dedicate themselves to the principles of Rotary, to harvest the fruits of Rotary teaching, to formulate for themselves and to promulgate for others the ideals of citizenship, to concern themselves with the less fortunate members of the young generation and to work in harmony with their mother-Rotary."

The club today went on record as being opposed to the proposed division of the second district of Rotary. In addition to the song session, participated in by the membership, special musical numbers were provided by Robert Brown and Alan Revell.

Visiting Rotarians from other clubs included Glenn E. Vedder, Pomona; Tad Dunning, Huntington Beach; James R. Hughes, San Francisco; Arthur Teaby, Fullerton; Art Trent, Huntington Beach; Fred Kinard, Riverside; Clint Hubbard and Bert Brink, Claremont; Wade Flippen, Orange, and C. P. Buckler, Pampa, Texas.

CLAIMS SPOUSE LOCKED DOORS TO HIS MOTHER

Alleging that his wife had locked the doors of their home against his mother when she came to visit them, Clarence M. Morrison today had brought suit for divorce against Estella Morrison. The defendant was accused by Morrison of having a violent temper.

In September, 1928, when he went to San Diego to attend a celebration in honor of Colonel Lindbergh, telling Mrs. Morrison that he would return at midnight, she flew into a rage, the complaint said. He returned on time, according to the complaint, but found that his wife had gone to Oklahoma, where, he stated, she remained for 30 days.

When he went out to his boat, Mrs. Morrison told him she hoped he would drown and would not return, according to the complaint. One minor child is in her custody and Morrison has agreed to pay $25 a month for its support and education, his complaint said. The couple married in 1920 and separated on June 17, 1929, according to the complaint, which was filed through B. Z. McKinney, Santa Ana attorney.

Convention Plans To Be Discussed By Legionnaires

To formulate plans for the representation of the Orange county American Legion posts at the annual state convention, to be held next month in San Diego, county Legionnaires will meet at 7 p. m. Friday, in the Newport Harbor Legion hall. Plans also will be discussed for the program on Legion day at the Orange County fair.

Children Will Play In Vacation Time

When school is over Dad looks over his glasses at Johnny and says, "Well, son, now that you've got nothing to do, I think I can manage to find a few little odd jobs to keep you busy."

"That lawn out there needs to be cut once a week, the car needs a shampoo twice a week, and the hedge ought to have a hair cut about once a month."

And he mentions a few other things that Johnny might do in his spare time, such as cleaning out the cellar and painting the porch steps, and he adds that Johnny's Aunt Clara and Johnny's Grandma are waiting to have a few things done too.

In the meanwhile his mother hasn't been idle. Her mind has a neat little stack of choice jobs waiting for Son John that we needn't unveil.

The whole family is singing a chorus, "When Johnny gets out of school! When Johnny gets out of school! Oh, won't we have a glorious time, when Johnny gets out of school!"

We shall now skip the next month and raise the curtain in the theater of Johnny's great performance.

Act I—The lawn of the Smith house. In the foreground one medium-sized lawn mower. Two slices of lawn extending a fragrance of newly cut grass, the remainder billowing and rippling in the breeze, like a field of young wheat.

Players—Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. Smith alighting from his car and looking around. "Hm! Same old story."

Mrs. Smith (appearing at screen): "He's been gone since and I can't find him. I've called up every place I can think of, but he's just nowhere. Isn't this place a disgrace?"

Mr. Smith: "Disgrace! Will you please lift your eyes and look at that car. It still has the mud on it we got Sunday week ago in the storm. Don't talk about disgrace to me. I'll tell you what's a disgrace. It's that worthless boy we've got. Not a darn thing done. Look at that hedge! Look at those steps! One step painted and the rest of the paint still in the can waiting for me to trip over it in the garage. He's gone swimming I'll bet a dollar. Just plain worthless—that's what he is."

No second or third act. That's all there is, there isn't any more.

Oh, fathers, fathers! Oh, mothers, mothers! Vacation, summer time, children, work, mix them if you can. Some way or other I never could get a very good blend, and if you can, you're a wonder.

Six Ways You Gain

—when you ride the Big Red Cars

Pacific Electric

1 Low Cost

Communtation fares to Los Angeles are far lower than other forms of transportation. Figure the saving in your own individual case. You save the cost of parking fees, too.

2 Added Leisure

Everytime you ride, you win extra minutes to rest, read or study.

3 Less Nerve Strain

You avoid traffic and parking worries. You arrive rested, ready for the day's activities.

4 Pleasure for your family

When you ride the Red Cars, your family has the use of your automobile all day.

5 Safety

The motorman's whole job—the Pacific Electric's responsibility—is to get you safely to your destination.

6 Convenience

The Big Red Cars travel the direct route, mostly over private rights-of-way. Investigate the convenient schedules. Try the Red Cars the next time you go to Los Angeles.

How to Successfully Reduce

This paragraph is directed especially to the overweight: If reduction diets fail to do their work one of two things is wrong. You are cheating on the diet, snipping a mouthful here and there of foods taboo, (starches and sweets) thus piling up many more calories than allowed by the diet, or intestinal digestion and elimination are slow.

Starches are digested in the intestine and it is here that they get in their deadly work if CONSTIPATION is an element one has to combat.

The chief aid to successful reduction is vigorous elimination. If the bowels do not function naturally see to it that they do. Take a brisk walk every day, use bending exercises, eat plenty of fresh fruit and salad vegetables and drink plenty of water between meals; lack of fluids is sometimes the cause of constipation.

Don't condemn a good diet until you are sure that your own habits are not defeating it.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Risotto
1 large onion
or
1 bunch green onions
1 green pepper
1 stalk of celery
1/2 pound lean raw ham
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup uncooked rice
1/2 cup beer broth
1/2 cup strained tomato
Salt and pepper to taste

Prepared with care this is a whole dinner in one dish, nutritious, palatable and good to look at. With a good crisp salad, fresh berries and a light cake, an appetizing meal is yours for the making.

Wash the rice till the water runs clear, drain it and drop into rapidly boiling water to cook for 15 minutes. Drain and rinse.

Prepare the vegetables and run them through the food chopper. Dice the ham fine and gently saute in the butter until half cooked, scoop out the ham and put in the half-cooked rice and saute to a golden brown.

The rice must be stirred frequently while browning for we want a golden shade not a dark chocolate.

When the rice is ready put back the ham, add the chopped vegetables, strained tomato and beef broth and cook for 10 minutes over the fire. Taste and season, then pour the mixture into a baking dish and finish in a hot oven for 20 minutes. Beef broth cubes make the broth quickly.

Approximately 1600 calories will be found in the Risotto, with portions for six where the dessert and salad are generously served.

New pickle wrinkles, the current leaflet, has many fascinating old recipes in its keeping—recipes that you will just love to fuss with and be proud to serve next winter. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the copy we offer free this week.

Tomorrow we are going to prepare Potted Fish. This is a delicious method of preparing fish to be eaten cold.

At the Theatres

FOX WALKER

Eddie Dowling's all-talking and singing picture, "The Rainbow Man," now showing at the Fox Walker theater, has a moving, human plot. The hero, played by Dowling who also wrote the story and the songs, is a small-time actor and he continued to be one throughout the film. He doesn't suddenly strike shale oil and millions in the musical comedy manner, nor does he fight a duel with thirty villains in i w nthe girl.

The songs are lovely melodies, easily remembered, but not of the "hot" or "blues" variety.

Thus "The Rainbow Man" filled with true heart-interest, comedy and episodic action, and brings three personages to undisputed prominence in the realm of sound films—Eddie Dowling, Marian Nixon and little Frankie Darro.

FOX BROADWAY

Douglas Fairbanks in his newest picture, "The Iron Mask," current attraction at the Fox Broadway theater, has brought to life one of the most vivid and colorful periods of history, the French seventeenth century. Once more Louis XIII and his Queen, Anne of Austria, hold court in the Palace of St. Germain. The brilliant and sinister Richelieu again controls the destiny of France. Louis XIV is born and spends his boyhood in the shadow of his weakling father and the powerful Cardinal.

D'Artagnan and his company of musketeers wage war against England and protect their ruler from the plots of Richelieu and the arch conspirator, de Rochefort.

In "The Iron Mask," the youth of America will be able to see the actual making of the history of France, the records of which it studies in text books. Every detail is historically accurate.

DICTATOR SIX

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN (115) INCH WHEELBASE

at a lower price

at the factory

STUDEBAKER'S famous Dictator Six, the finest car ever built and sold at its price, now becomes a still finer car—offered at a still lower price!

The wheelbase has been increased to 115 inches. It is fleetier, lower—smarter in line and color—smoother in its supple power—than even its champion predecessor, The Dictator which sped 5000 miles in 4,751 minutes. Studebaker performance, which holds every official stock car speed and endurance record, is strikingly evident in The New Dictator Six, as in its companion car, The Dictator Eight.

Studebaker's unique One-Profit manufacture alone permits such a car to be sold at a price lower than that of any Studebaker closed car in history.

Come take the wheel of The New Dictator Six, or Eight. Whatever you drive now, you will be impressed with The New Dictator's champion quality, at its low One-Profit price.

115-inch wheelbase.
Oil filter, gasoline filter and crankcase ventilating system insure maximum engine efficiency.
Lanchester vibration dampener.
Rubber engine mountings.
Fuel pump insures constant, adequate flow of gasoline, regardless of speed or grade.
Thermostatically controlled cooling system retards flow of water until motor has reached precisely correct temperature for highest operating efficiency.

Timken tapered roller bearings in rear axle, front and rear wheels and steering knuckles.

Double-drop frame of new compound flange design—far costlier but sturdier, safer and permitting graceful lowness of body lines.

Hydraulic shock absorbers, front and rear.

Upholstered arm rests at each side of rear seat, which is 46 inches wide.

Hardware of soft Buair finish, further beautified by an etched design.

Full-vision, full-ventilated bodies of steel over hardwood foundation—the accepted fine car coachcraft.

One-piece steel core safety steering wheel.

Fully adjustable steering wheel and front seat.

Amplified-action 4-wheel brakes which stop The Dictator in half the distance accepted as standard.

Tarnish-proof chromium plating of all exterior brightwork.

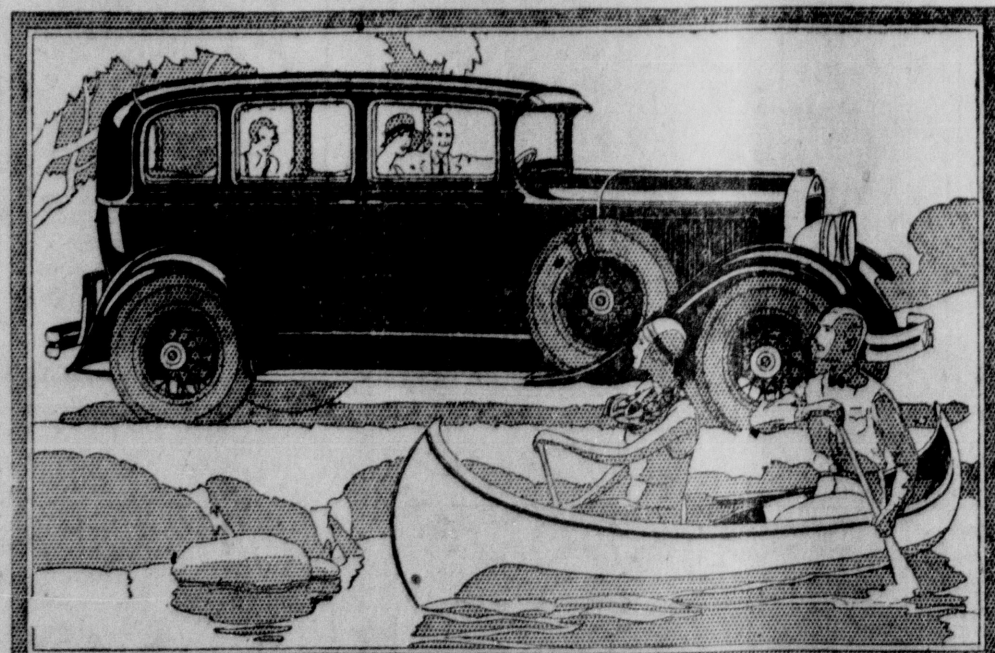

Coincidental lock to ignition and steering assures Dictator owners lowest theft insurance rates.

The Dictator may be driven 40 miles per hour the day it is delivered—the result of advanced engineering, precision workmanship and careful inspection.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The Tinymites were quite surprised when suddenly they realized that they were really in a cloud, and safe as safe could be.

The Sky Tots had a happy hunch and pushed the cloud beneath the bunch. From danger through their long, long fall the Tinymites were free.

Four Sky Tots flew around about and soon wee Scouty shouted out, "We want to thank you fellows for the kindness you have shown. We're very sure that we were bound to flop real hard upon the ground. Just think what might have happened. Why, it fairly makes me groan."

"Oh, that's all right," one Sky Tot said. "We do not blame you if you dread a sudden jolt. But now you're safe. Forget about it, please. We did the trick with little fuss, and hope, some day, you'll play with us. Right now, however, we will push you 'round the sky with ease."

And then the Sky Tots flapped their wings real fast. Oh, my, what funny things. They pushed the little puffy cloud that held the Tinymites. Along they went for miles and miles. The Tinies' faces all wore smiles. Then nighttime came. The stars above seemed tiny little lights.

"Ho, hum," said Scouty. "I can't keep myself awake. I guess I'll sleep. This cloud is very soft and it will make a dandy bed. Let's all stretch out and snooze a bit. When we wake up we'll all feel fit." Then every Tiny snuggled down to rest his weary head.

All through the night the Sky Tots kept on pushing while the Tinies slept. One Sky Tot said, "My, they are tired. Their sleep will do them good. 'Tis well that we can stay awake, and that our little wings don't ache. We'll not desert the Tinies, but stay with them as we should."

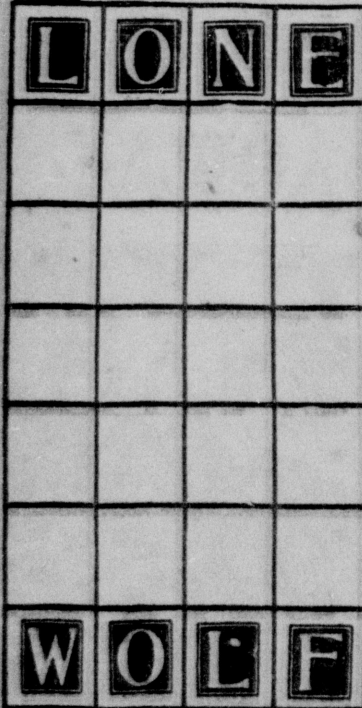

(The Tinymites drift into a cyclone in the next story.)

Missing Letter Links

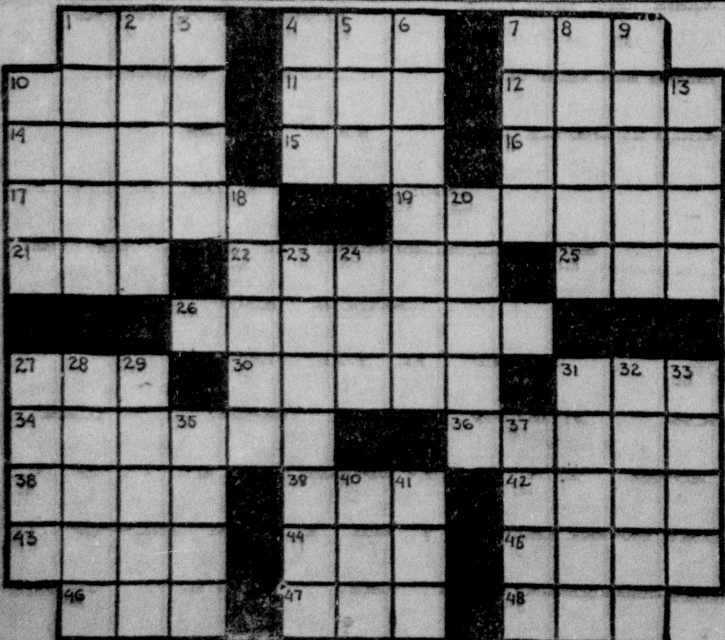

RULES

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIP-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.
2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.
3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

COURAGE OFTEN TESTED DURING SPORT EVENTS

the ball a couple of long seconds, then tapped it gently toward the cup. It rolled slowly over the tilted green and—kerplunk! Down into the cup!

Call it the old Frank Merriwell if you want to, but in the crisis, when a man must either win or lose by a single move, it is most often courage and courage alone that will see it through.

Babe Ruth has it—ever since one day when some old Tanager of the caves organized the first quota league—or maybe it was duck on the rock or stone tennis.

Babe Ruth has shown it—more this year than ever before. Time after time this year, his home runs belted him perfectly timed to that instant when a game depended upon just such a wallop.

Gene Tunney had it in Chicago. Knocked to pike-land by a murderous left hook, he fought to bring back his scattered senses, and came on to win after a seventh round in which the fight looked to be over.

In the 1927 world series, creaking old Grover Alexander had it. Coming to the pitcher's box at a moment when the game seemed lost, he pitched for all he was worth and held the Yankees at bay.

Leonard Tendler

Denny Leonard had it. Lew Tendler was killing him with a left hand that kept popping into his face with destructive regularity. "If that's your left hand you'd better go home," he told Tendler, and the words took the heart out of the battling Philadelphian.

Back in 1913 Harry Hooper raced to the wall and reached over it to pull down a fly ball that saved the series for the Red Sox—a catch that finally beat the Giants out of a world championship.

Billy Evans, American league umpire for 20 years had it in his first game in the big leagues when the hard-boiled veteran, Kid Eberfeld came tearing at him after a close decision at first and the youngster from Youngstown stood his ground and gave the tough old Kid just as good as he sent.

It is the quality that makes the games men play thrilling to their fellows—the punch in the pinch—the ability to deliver when the odds are heavily against it. It is the attribute that makes victory great.

Mrs. C. J. Clark, who recently underwent a major operation at the Santa Ana Valley hospital, is reported to be doing nicely and expects to return home this week.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Joe Malcewicz, described in wrestling circles as the "Utica Panther," is a slight favorite to defeat Nick Lutze, in their two out of three fall finish match at the Olympic auditorium tonight.

Legal Notice

NOTICE INVITING SEALED BIDS

Notice is hereby given that the City of Santa Ana, California, will receive bids up to the hour of five o'clock P. M., July 15th, 1929, for the furnishing of a motor truck, according to the following specifications:

One motor truck—underslung chassis without driver's cab, with a wheel base and capacity to accommodate dump body 12 feet in length and a total load, including body, of 4 1/2 tons. The truck to be equipped with 34x7 1/2 pneumatic tires, dual in rear, and mounted on Budd Michelin wheels attached to hubs with ten lug bolts.

Alternate bids will be received on the truck—one bid without a trade in and one bid with a trade in allowance for a Dodge Graham truck chassis which can be seen at the City Garage on West First Street.

Bids must be accompanied by a certified check in amount equal to ten (10) per cent of the total bid to guarantee that the successful bidder will enter into a contract with the said City to furnish the said truck.

Alternate bids must also be accompanied by a complete set of specifications covering the particular truck bid on. The City Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Dated this 27th day of June, 1929. (SEAL) E. L. VEGIELY, City Clerk of the City of Santa Ana, California.

AND WHAT NEXT?

We can hardly keep up with the various world records for airplanes which are being broken. Endurance, speed, distance, weight-carrying, everything is done better and on a greater scale today than yesterday. A hop from Los Angeles to Paris, either way, around the world, will soon be a simple thing.

We recall some twenty years ago hearing a clergyman emphasize in a sermon that surely the end of the world was near, and we could expect the "second coming" almost immediately, for the reason that it seemed that man had learned about all there was to learn. He said he believed that under Providence the earth was prepared for man's development, that man was placed here to seek after truth, and that now he had certainly learned from the air, from the water, from the plains and from the mountains, about all that a man could learn.

And we recall his description of the various things which man had discovered, had grown and had mined, and it did seem as though there must be very little left. In the last 20 years, however, since this minister suggested that the limits had been reached, there have been some of the greatest strides in scientific discovery, invention, means of communication, transportation and the reproduction of scenery and of the voice, that have been accomplished in all the years since history began, and now so keen is the imagination that all limitations have been taken off in our thought of the possibilities of what may be accomplished.

The air endurance record is 172 hours, but nobody knows how much a street car rider will put up with.

DESERVES SUPPORT

We sometimes judge a man's financial ability by the debts which he is able to accumulate. It takes a big man to be trusted for a large amount. It takes a big concern to run behind and still meet its bills.

The postal deficit in the United States last year was between $100,000,000 and $150,000,000. And yet we sent our letter out this morning to go away back East with the absolute certainty that each employee who handles it and each train that carries it, will all be paid by our wealthy uncle—Sam.

We are part of a big government. While we do not approve of running any department at a loss, yet if there is one to which as taxpayers we should be willing to make contribution, it is that department which insures the freest and most complete inter-communication, information and education, really amounting to the establishment of proper relationships between all parts of our great republic.

The Postoffice Department might be called the department of Relationships. It is the department of understanding. It enables us all to know one another better; to understand one another better; and to love one another more. It is expensive, but it is worth it.

Gangsters are born, not made, says a Chicago psychiatrist. Not just anybody can be an Al Capone.

A WAY THEY HAVE IN CHINA

General Feng Yu-hsiang has come to an agreement with the Nationalist government of China, and a great crisis has been averted in that nation.

The generals and armies in China are a curious group. They seem to be so personal in their nature, attaching to the general as long as he can pay or as long as they can hope for payment. It would appear that Feng's resources had become exhausted, and the only way he was assured of getting some money out of it was to turn against the government itself and Feng is the alleged Christian general. And so he made a declaration of war, bridges were burned, and fighting was carried on, but soon conditions began to change.

Feng's followers began to be bought off, and the long and short of it was that for $3,100,000 the rebellion collapsed. General Feng-Yu-hsiang gets $100,000 and he becomes special observer for the Nanking government. Probably he would have been beaten in the end, but you can't blame the government for doing it in the regular Chinese fashion.

Congress put skeletons on the tariff free list, but then nearly every family closet already has one.

AS ONE GROWS UP

An eleven-year-old boy in Los Angeles on Independence Day set fire to the school building in which he is forced to attend summer school. The fire did $5000 damage. The boy has a few lessons to learn before he will be properly adjusted to society and the task of teaching them will not be easy. His action was perfectly logical, however, from his personal angle. He disliked school; therefore he proceeded to go about getting rid of it and the better the day the better the deed. In fact, the day is thought to have suggested the deed.

One of the disagreeable things about growing up is the realization that we cannot rid ourselves of those things we dislike as easily as this lad thought he could. The other day as we entered the dentist's office we were struck with the wish that we still were at the age when we believed that kicking and squalling would rid us of the terrible approaching ordeal.

LIFE AFTER DEATH

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, a leading spiritualist who has reached seventy years of age, is approaching death with some equanimity because he is convinced of "personal survival after death," according to a news dispatch.

There are several points which must be conceded to the spiritualist belief. It appears to permit some people to hold belief in a future who could not hold it in the manner of the simple faith of the churchman of old. Through spiritualism we see men like Sir Arthur Conan Doyle approaching death with dignity and poise and people like Sir Oliver Lodge and his family sustaining the loss of a beloved relative.

Judgment and logic convince Sir Oliver Lodge and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and others like them; still others follow the simple channels of faith, and yet others, like Dr. Will Durant, hold to neither the former brand of logic nor the old-fashioned faith. To them death ends all.

One wonders how much harder it will be for Dr. Durant to approach death than for Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. He is still too young, however, to appreciate the difficulty. When the time comes he probably would make it easier for himself if he could. But his mind, while it is glorious in the way it frees him from prejudice and misconception, shackles him to sorrow.

MEDICAL ADVERTISING

We are interested in what the medical men in Portland are saying about advertising.

They declare that they are not opposed to advertising among their members, if the advertisers would only stick to the truth, but because some of the M. D.s, like other folks, cannot help exaggerating their power to cure, and will so advertise in the papers, this finally develops into a condition where the one who can write the best advertisement would appear to be the ablest physician. It would be a contest of salesmanship rather than medical ability.

Hence they say, we must not permit any of them to advertise in order that the man who has the goods, but can't get them into the front window as quickly and display them as invitingly as the other fellow, shall be protected. Maybe they could establish a board of censorship of their own for the public oftentimes is greatly benefited to know where they can obtain certain kinds of services.

Strangers in the city, with an ill infant, is a case in point, desperate to know someone who makes a specialty of infant feeding or diseases.

There are legitimate uses for advertising for the medical fraternity. It is unfortunate that these uses cannot be attained simply because of those who so highly commercialize their calling as to put the whole profession in disrepute by their absurd and ridiculous claims.

Counting Circulation of Nation's Newspapers

San Bernardino Sun

It was to be expected that the inquiry into the activities of the power trust in the ownership of newspapers would develop that some newspapers have concealed details of their ownership. Congress is expected to strengthen the existing regulations. And while this movement is gathering headway there also comes the further suggestion that it is high time the postoffice department makes audits to determine the truth of circulation statements also required from newspapers.

Exaggerated claim of circulation is a relic of the ship-shod methods that once marked the conduct of the newspaper field.

For many years the progressive newspapers of the country have submitted to an organized audit by the Audit Bureau of Circulation, a nationwide institution. The two San Bernardino newspapers are among the pioneers in the Audit Bureau of Circulation. That organization makes its regular audit and fixes the circulation of newspapers that are willing to let the light of day shine on their circulation.

Advertisers are entitled to the absolute truth regarding volume of circulation and its location. The man who buys a dozen eggs counts the eggs. The buyer of advertising is just as much entitled to count the number of papers in which his advertising appears.

The Sun is not only a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulation but the whole wide world also knows who owns it.

The Future of the Dirigible

Riverside Daily Press

When you talk about the future of aviation, you generally talk about airplanes. To most of us the dirigible, while fascinating to watch, does not figure greatly. It seems too clumsy, too fragile. But Commander C. E. Rosendahl of the U. S. navy, who runs the Lakehurst air station, believes that the dirigible's future is quite as bright as that of the plane.

The commander recently told graduates of Haverford College that in a few years huge dirigibles, six times the size of the present Los Angeles, will be making regular commercial trips over the Atlantic. They will carry hundreds of passengers in perfect safety, and huge quantities of freight, and will carry their own airplanes which they can launch and pick up in mid-air.

Most of us, probably, will hope that he is right. The dirigible has a spell all its own. The thought of a mighty flying liner catches the imagination; it gives a thrill that the quick, soaring airplane cannot give.

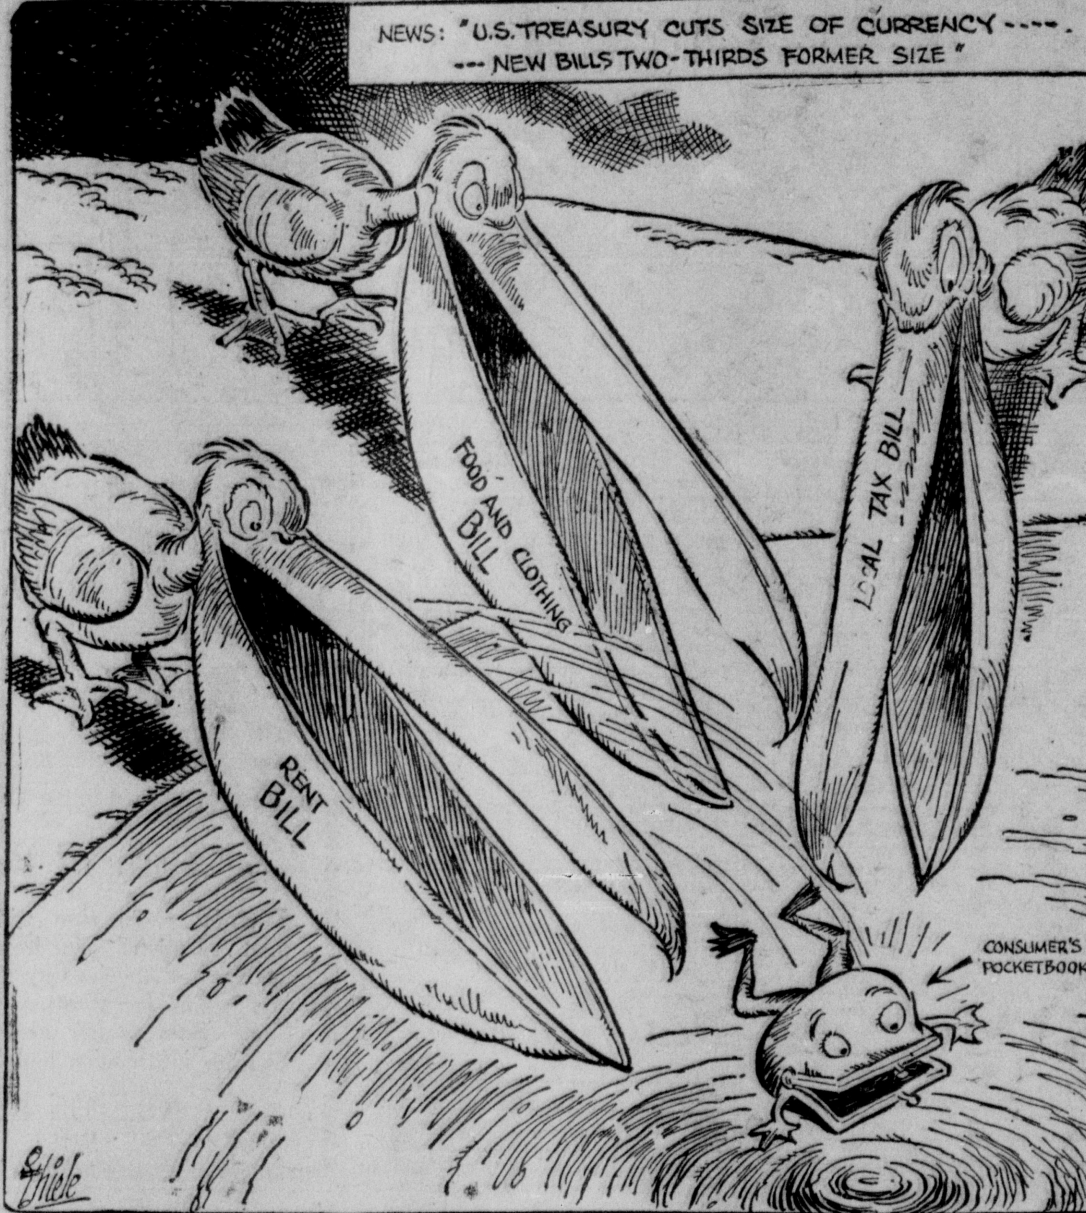

Honoring Women's Sciences

Pasadena Star-News

Recognition of woman's very important part in public-school educational work is quite deserved and fitting. The National Educational Association has done the gracious thing by electing a woman—Miss E. Ruth Pyrtle, school principal at Lincoln, Neb.—president of the association. Four women were elected vice-presidents, including Mrs. Eugenia West Jones, of California. The work of women in the schools of America is of outstanding excellence and of great importance. It is well for the National Education Association, to appreciate this, and to give due credit and honor to women educators.

A PROTEST FROM A FAT MAN
Italian impresarios declare that hereafter they will hire none but lean opera tenors who fit the star roles

Ze manager may make ze trouble;
Ze critic may say w'at he please
But putting ze art in ze opera part
I tal you myself, is no eas'.
Zey like for ze tenor go hongry
So he looka romantic an' thin,
But wen for so long I have singa ze song
I wanta ze great bigga din'.

Ze people zey like ze moosic,
Zey want ze bootiful sound,
And I singa more sweet if so moosica I eat
Zat I weigh two or tree hundred pound.
Lean tenors is more zan a plenty
Zey swarma as 'tick as ze dust
But zem fellars will last joost so long in ze cast
Zat de opera beezness go bust.

All day long I moost practice ze aria
Do re me sol—note after note,
Low down and oop high, till I get by an' by
Like ze camel, so dry in ze 'froat.
An' zen I send out for chianti
An' pretty soon hongry I feel
So zen I must eat ze spaghetti an' meat
Till I makka ze nice fine meal.

Let zem take ze leetle thin fallars—
To look at zem make me seek—
When ze singa zero best with zero t'in hollow chest
Like ze small leetle mouse zey go "squeak"
My voice he is big an' robusto
Like a beautiful bell he can ring
But I'm not ze darn fool, so I makka ze rule
No eata ze plenty, no sing!

"Less Government In Business"

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

How can we expect business men to favor further Government control of business?
We expect no such thing. All we propose is that the Government shall employ more men when jobs are scarce, and fewer men when times are good.

This proposal gives the Government no new powers; it merely calls for the more intelligent use of its present powers. The Government now has sole power to levy Federal taxes, expend money for public works, regulate the currency, impose duties, fix wages of its employees, borrow money for Federal uses? and pay its debts.

In exercising these powers, the Government now acts one way or the other, with or without adequate guidance. Thus it affects business. Inevitably. Even those who cry "less Government in business" do not propose to destroy these powers.

As a matter of fact? the policy which we propose means less interference with business; for it provides better business information, more promptly and more widely distributed.

Under this policy, moreover, the Government makes its own expenditures with reference to business needs, slackening its competition with private concerns for men and materials when competition is keenest, and adding to the income of buyers when buying is falling off. That also means less Government interference with business.

The Government now puts up storm signals at every port without boarding the ships and telling the captains what to do. Surely the Government could announce that it is, or is not, a favorable time for expansion of plant without taking control of the Steel Corporation.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

THE TEACHER'S TASK

"Rabbi," said Nicodemus to Jesus, "I suspect he got along without the elaborate instruments of modern teaching because the direction of his teaching was different from the intention of much that now goes by the name of teaching."

He was not interested in giving his hearers new information.

He was interested in giving them a new way of looking at all information, old and new.

He was not interested in having his hearers absorb a mass of standardized information, but in having them think about the pressing problems of their own lives.

He was not interested in increasing their knowledge.

He was interested in increasing their understanding.

He was not concerned to have them practice remembering.

He wanted them to practice thinking.

Jesus would have a hard time getting an appointment to a $1500 instructorship in a modern university.

And yet Jesus was one of the great teachers of his day.

We must make a place for great teachers as well as for efficient instructors.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THE HAPPY BABY

A healthy baby is a happy baby. One of the best ways to establish and maintain this happy condition is strict adherence to schedule. The baby that is certain of care at the set time rarely frets. The body of the child that is fed on schedule time is a harmonious body seldom causing unrest or trouble to any other body.

If one bathes a child at a convenient time—8:30 this morning, 11:10 another morning, along toward dinner time of another day, one is likely to have a cross baby to bathe. The body soon forms a time habit and any disregard of established ways is likely to bring on protests and tempers and illness.

Bedtime ought to happen along at the same time every night. If it is not convenient to put the baby to bed at the usual time but long after that, one is not to be surprised to have an irritable child on one's hands for the next few days. Nothing disturbs a little one more than the disregard of its bedtime.

I have no belief in the magic of the stroke of the clock. I do not believe that a child will come to grief merely because his meal-time was skipped once in a blue moon. Nor do I believe that he will come to an untimely end if he gets a sweet cracker or a bit of chocolate between meals. Children get hungry regardless of schedule and an extra bite of goodies will ease them over a 4 legged muskito.

O is that so, well I bet this dog has won prizes in dog shows if you want to know, I sed, and Glasses sed, Well if it did they must have been prizes for the one that looked the least like a dog and the most like a flea.

Which just then Puds Slimkins came up, Glasses saying, Hay Puds look whose holding a wild animal. O mersey Persey arent you afraid? Puds sed, Stipping it bit you all its mite, you mite think you was stuck by a pin, he sed.

Well Im going to get 5 cents for minding it just a same, I sed, and Glasses sed, 5 cents, good nite, I wouldnt stand that diskrace for 5 dollars.

Me neither, good nite, Puds sed. Wich then I saw 3 more of the fellows coming, and I sed, Aw heck, let the darn perp mind it self, what do I care for the 5 cents.

And I quick tyed the end of the chain to a awning pole. Proving money aint everything.

GERMAN SUB IN U. S.
On July 10, 1916, diplomatic representatives of France and England filed protests at Washington against the presence of the Deutschland, a German submarine, in the U. S. port.

The German undersea vessel, built wholly for purposes of commerce, had arrived safely in Baltimore, July 2, 1916, after a daring trip across the Atlantic sometimes beneath the very keels of the warships of its enemies.

The French and English diplomats held the sub was potentially a warship and that it should not be allowed to sail from an American port. United States naval experts, however, inspected the craft and found it purely a commercial vessel, unarmed and incapable of being fitted with torpedoes or large guns.

The coming of the Deutschland furnished a dramatic surprise as it was the first commercial submarine in history. The craft carried a cargo of dyestuffs from Germany to the United States.

THE SUB WAS 300 FEET LONG, 30 feet wide and carried 1000 tons of cargo and a crew of 23 men. It cost $500,000 and its cargo of dyestuffs on the first voyage was said to have paid for the whole enterprise.
